To celebrate our 60th anniversary, we have created the Scholastic Reading Champions program.

Reading Champions are people who:

- Bring the joy of reading to Canadian children
- Promote a love of reading in their community
- Help put books into the hands of children
- Are a reading inspiration to those around them

Each month in 2017 we will highlight the achievements of FIVE Reading Champions on our website AND donate a library of Scholastic books* to the literacy organization of each Reading Champion's choice!

Do you know a Champion de la lecture/Reading Champion?
Nominate one today!

Visit scholastic.ca/championsdelalecture for more information about the nomination process.

Quelle chance! Ton papa n'est pas une pieuvre!

Be Glad Your Dad...(Is Not an Octopus!)

Most of the time, you're glad your dad is your dad, until he gets grouchy, bossy, or just plain gross. Then you wish you could swap him for something else. But be careful what you wish for, because it could be way worse...

In this silly what-if story, kids will roar with laughter at the misadventures of a monkey dad, an alligator dad, a whale dad, and even a unicorn dad! But nothing can replace the dads who love them more than anything in the whole wide world.

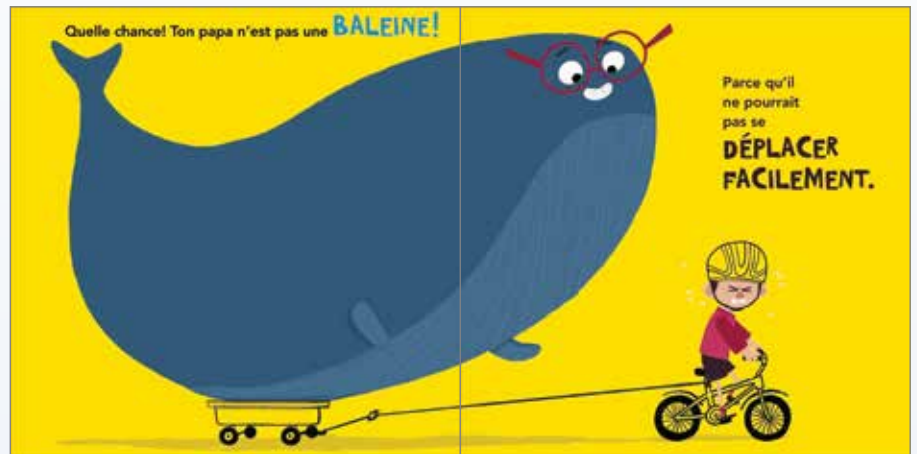

Fun facts about the animals are included in the back of the book.

MATTHEW LOGELIN is the author of the New York Times bestselling memoir Two Kisses for Maddy as well as the award-winning blog Matt, Liz, and Madeline. Quelle chance! Ton papa n'est pas une pieuvre! is his debut picture book, and he lives in Los Angeles, California.

SARA JENSEN is a creative director and a designer. Quelle chance! Ton papa n'est pas une pieuvre! is her debut picture book. She lives in Washington.

JARED CHAPMAN is the author and illustrator of Pirate, Viking & Scientist and Steve, Raised by Wolves. He has worked for Walt Disney Television Animation, Nick Jr., Hallmark, and The Hollywood Reporter, among others, and he lives in Mount Pleasant, Texas.

It's Great Being a Dad

A gang of mythical creatures is roaming around a magical land having a great time, until Bigfoot gets his foot stuck in a tree trunk and Unicorn gets her horn impaled on a table and Robot's saw-arm gets rusted into position. But have no fear! Dad is there to fix things—even when a Sneaky Flying Alligator Pirate steals the Fairy Queen Ballerina Doctor's wand.

A hilarious story about imagination, play and the best parts about being a dad.

DAN BAR-EL is an award-winning children's author, educator and storyteller who has published chapter books, picture books and graphic novels. Over the past twenty-one years, he has worked with children ages 3 to 13 as a school-age childcare provider, a preschool teacher, a creative drama and a creative writing teacher. Dan lives in Vancouver.

Les hauts et les bas d'Amanda

The Thing Lou Couldn't Do

Amanda and her friends are brave adventurers. They race airplanes, build mighty forts and tame wild animals. But when her friends suggest they use the tree as a pirate ship, Amanda doesn't think she can climb aboard (and up its branches). She proposes other activities to avoid climbing, but alas, none of these tactics work. Faced with the challenge, Amanda gives it her best try. She tries with all her might to get up the tree, but ends up falling to the ground with a thud. Amanda may concede to the tree for now, but there's always tomorrow to try anew.

A funny and heartwarming story on determination and courage.

ASHLEY SPIRES, author and illustrator of numerous funny books for children including Quel génie! and Les aventures de Basile series and Petit Paul, the 2016 TD French Book Giveaway, was born and raised in BC with eight cats and a dog. After spending some time living in Toronto and Saskatoon, she has returned to the BC life, living in Ladner with three cats, one dog and a man. When she is not running or bike riding or over-scheduling herself, she makes children's books, many of which have won numerous awards, including Ontario's Silver Birch Express, the Atlantic Province's Hackmatack, Saskatchewan's Shining Willow and BC's Chocolate Lily Award. Ashley lives in Delta, BC.

Joyeux rêveur

Happy Dreamer

Creativity guru Peter Reynolds brings us a universally poignant celebration of what it means to dream and the many ways to find happiness!

While the world tells us to sit still, to follow the rules, and to colour inside the lines, Joyeux rêveur celebrates all those moments in between when the mind and spirit soar and we are free to become our own true dreamer!

In Peter's signature voice and style, this empowering picture book reminds children of how much their dreams matter, and while life will have ups and downs, he encourages readers to stay true to who they are, to tap into their most creative inner selves, and to never ever forget to dream big!

PETER H. REYNOLDS is a New York Times bestselling children's book author and illustrator of many books for children, including the Judy Moody series, written by Meghan McDonald, The Dot, Ish, Sky Color, and Allison McGhee's Someday, selling more than 2 million books in over 25 languages around the globe. He lives in Dedham, Massachusetts.

Ma petite étoile

Twinkle

One quiet night a little girl who gazes out her window and imagines that the stars are her friends. Suddenly, a shooting star lands in her garden, and in a twinkle the night is filled with friendship and fun. Eventually it is time for Little Star to go home—and one little girl to go to bed—but how do you make a star fall up?

A charming, gently humorous and beautifully illustrated bedtime story.

NICK BLAND always told family and friends he was going to be a cartoonist and a writer, and he began his career in children's literature to bring those two loves together. He is the author and illustrator of Gros Ours grincheux, Gros Ours et Petite Puce, Gros Ours affamé, and many other popular picture books. Nick lives in Darwin, Australia.

WORLD REFUGEE
DAY IS JUNE 20TH

Où vais-je vivre?

Where Will I Live?

This stunning photo-based picture book for younger readers takes a look at the thousands of children around the world who have been forced to flee war, terror, hunger, sickness, and natural disasters—young refugees on the move with very little left except questions. It's hard to imagine, but the images here will help unaffected children understand not only what this must feel like, but also how very lucky they are. The final message is that children, even with uncertain futures, are resilient and can face uncertainty with optimism. Gripping images are from the The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

ROSEMARY MCCARNEY is president and CEO of Toronto-based Plan Canada, one of the largest international development agencies in Canada. After working with organizations like the World Bank, Canadian International Development Agency, the UN, and Street Kids International, she moved to Plan Canada, where she led the initiative for the International Day of the Girl and spearheads the Because I am a Girl campaign. Rosemary lives in Toronto with her family.

Unis par le jeu : Comment le soccer peut changer le monde

The Banana-Leaf Ball: How Play Can Change the World

Separated from his family, a young East African boy named Deo lives alone in the Lukole refugee camp in Tanzania. With scarce resources at the camp, bullies have formed gangs to steal what they can, and a leader named Remy has begun targeting Deo. Then one day a coach gathers all the children to play soccer. Though Deo loves soccer and has even made his own ball out of banana leaves, he's unsure at first about joining in when he sees Remy on the field. But as Deo and the other boys get drawn into the game, everything begins to change. Their shared joy in playing provides the children—including Remy—with a sense of belonging.

Based on a true story, Katie Smith Milway's inspiring tale shows how a desperate situation can be improved by finding common ground through play.

KATIE SMITH MILWAY, a native of Vancouver, B.C., has coordinated community development programs in Africa and Latin America for Food for the Hungry; consulted on village banking in Senegal with World Vision and was a delegate to the 1992 Earth Summit. She has written books and articles on sustainable development and is currently a partner at nonprofit consultancy The Bridgespan Group.

SHANE W. EVANS is the illustrator of more than thirty picture books for children, including the critically acclaimed Olu's Dream, Underground and We March, which he also wrote. He has received numerous awards and honors for his work, including the Coretta Scott King-John Steptoe Award for New Talent and the Boston Globe-Horn Book Award. A passionate and curious world traveler, his home base is in Kansas City, Missouri, where he runs Dream Studio, a community art space.

Assassin's Creed : Last Descendants

An all-new series based on the hit video game franchise Assassin's Creed!

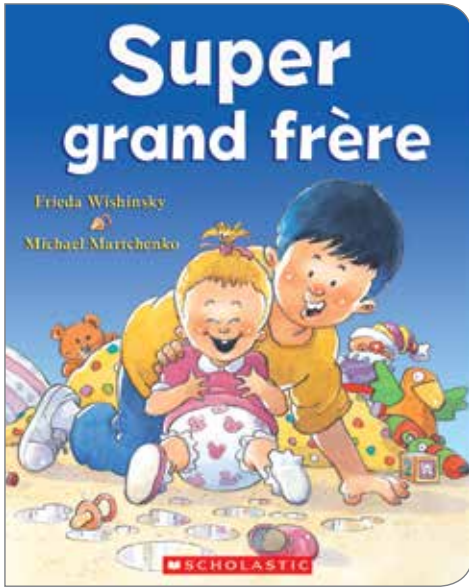

Nothing in Owen's life has been right since his father died in prison, accused of a crime Owen is certain he didn't commit. Monroe, the IT guy at school, might finally bring Owen the means to clear his father's name by letting him use an Animus—a device that lets users explore genetic memories buried within their own DNA. During a simulation, Owen uncovers the existence of a powerful relic long considered a legend—the Trident of Eden. Now two secret organizations will stop at nothing to take possession of this artifact—the Brotherhood of Assassins and the Templar Order. It becomes clear the only way to save himself is to find the Trident first.

Under the guidance of Monroe, Owen and a group of other teenagers go into a memory they all share within their DNA: the 1863 Draft Riots in New York City. Owen and his companions will find themselves tested on the violent streets of New York, and their experiences in the past will have far-reaching consequences in the present.

MATTHEW J KIRBY is the critically acclaimed author of the middle-grade novels Icefall, which won the Edgar Award for Best Juvenile Mystery; The Clockwork Three, which was named a Publishers Weekly Flying Start; The Lost Kingdom; and Cave of Wonders, the fifth book in the Infinity Ring series. He was born in Utah and grew up in Maryland, California, and Hawaii. Matthew is currently at work on his next novel.

Super grand frère

Oonga Boonga

Daniel's family has a little problem. Daniel's baby sister, Louise, just won't stop crying. Everyone in the family tries to soothe her. Her mother sings a lullaby; her father rocks her in his arms; Grandma gives her a bottle; Grandpa plays a tune on his harmonica. But nothing works! Little Louise just goes on crying until big brother Daniel appears on the scene and tells her, "Oonga Boonga." Like magic, Louise's tears stop. But the funny thing is, these whimsical words don't work when the grown-ups say them. Daniel has the magic touch with his little sister!

FRIEDA WISHINSKY has written over 40 books for children, including Tu es méchante, Lily Angel!; the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award winner Please, Louise!, as well as Canada en vedette. Frieda lives in Toronto, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO'S illustrations are as instantly identifiable and lovable as Robert Munsch's stories. His wild and colourful pictures add depth and even more hilarity to these picture book tales. He received the CBA Children's Illustrator of the Year Libris Award in 2006. He lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Le mot magique

The Magic Word

When Paxton C. Heymeyer's babysitter tells him to say the magic word, she could never have imagined that what would happen next would be a walrus chasing her, an elephant in the living room playing cards, and a full water park and moat in the front yard. And that's just the beginning...

A hilarious take on the notion of the "magic word" and how it can get you what you want (most of the time).

Dino-bolides

Dino-Racing

In this installment of dino competition, meat eaters face off against plant eaters in three high-speed auto events: drag racing, off-road racing, and stock-car racing. Lisa Wheeler's rhymes explore thoughtful questions such as: Which dinosaurs would make the best chasers for support in a desert off-road race? Does T-Rex's king status transfer to the track? And can Diplosaurus actually fit inside a stock car?

LISA WHEELER is an award-winning author. When she is not writing about dinosaurs playing sports, she is sprinting around the country visiting schools. She lives in Trenton, Michigan.

BARRY GOTT lives in Ohio and has illustrated many children's books, including all of the dino-sports books. He enjoys falling off skateboards and snowboards and hopes to someday fall off a surfboard.

À l'aéroport

The Airport Book

In a book that is as intriguing as it is useful and entertaining, we follow a family on its way through the complexities of a modern-day airport. From checking bags and watching them disappear on the mysterious conveyor belt, to security clearance and a seemingly endless wait at the gate to finally being airborne.

But wait! There's more! The youngest family member's sock monkey has gone missing. Follow it at the bottom of the page as it makes a journey as memorable as that of the humans above.

LISA BROWN is the New York Times bestselling author/illustrator of a number of books for young readers including How to Be and Vampire Boy's Good Night. She also illustrated the critically acclaimed Emily's Blue Period. She lives in San Francisco.

Le Canada, c'est moi

I Am Canada

Heather Patterson's free verse poem Le Canada, c'est moi, originally published in a photographic version, gets new life in this beautiful, illustrated hardcover timed to celebrate both Canada's 150th year and Scholastic Canada's 60th.

Beautiful illustrations and simple text seek to convey the ample space available to our children in this country, and the freedom they have to grow, dream and share. A catalyst for discussions about the Canadian identity and the infinite variety of our multicultural land.

HEATHER PATTERSON is the author of Merci l'automne!, Un coquelicot pour se souvenir and Canada From Above all published by Scholastic Canada. A former elementary school teacher and children's book editor she is a fiercely proud Canadian. Heather lives in Etobicoke, Ontario.

★ REVIEWS

“...they'll enjoy a beautiful book that depicts Canada in all its cultural and geographical diversity. From the First Nations festival to hockey on a frozen pond, to lying in a pile of fall leaves to admiring the Northern Lights, the kids in this book indeed ARE Canada. In its full array of beauty”

Au fil de l'eau

Float

A boy's small paper boat—and his large imagination—fill the pages of this wordless picture book, a modern-day classic from the creator of Excusez-moi! that includes endpaper instructions for building a boat of your own.

A little boy takes a boat made of newspaper out for a rainy-day adventure. The boy and his boat dance in the downpour and play in the puddles, but when the boy sends his boat floating down a gutter stream, it quickly gets away from him.

So of course the little boy goes on the hunt for his beloved boat—and when the rain lets up, he finds himself on a new adventure altogether.

This seemingly simply story from Daniel Miyares is enriched with incredible depth and texture that transcend words.

DANIEL MIYARES has illustrated books such as Bambino and Mr. Twain and Waking Up is Hard to Do. Excusez-moi! was his first adventure as an author/illustrator, followed by Au fil de l'eau. He earned a BFA in illustration from Ringling College of Art and Design in 2002 and has since worked for Hallmark Cards Inc. Daniel currently lives near Kansas City.

Je suis une histoire

I Am a Story

Internationally acclaimed author-illustrator Dan Yaccarino presents a powerful picture book that celebrates storytelling—from the past to the present and beyond.

From cave drawings to the invention of the printing press to our digital age, discover how a story has been told in many different ways from the past to today. It's always been around, making us happy, sad, excited, or scared and bringing people together. With simple text and delightful illustrations, Dan Yaccarino reminds us of the power of story.

DAN YACCARINO is an internationally acclaimed author-illustrator with more than thirty children's books to his credit, including Five Little Pumpkins, Trashy Town, Unlovable, and The Fantastic Undersea Life of Jacques Cousteau. He also created and produced Nickelodeon's Oswald and is the character designer behind The Backyardigans. Dan lives in New York City.

★ REVIEWS

- “Yaccarino’s global scope, as well as a contemporary campfire scene that brings the book full circle, cements the idea that the stories we share are a profound source of human connection.” ~ Publishers Weekly
- “Yaccarino gives voice to the many ways that humans have preserved, shared, and recorded their history through words and images... a good introduction to stories, books, and reading.” ~ Kirkus Reviews

Mon grand livre d'animaux

My First Big Book of Animals

An adorable animal reference sure to be welcomed by parents and librarians alike. Filled with fluffy and scaly creatures big and small, this appealing book introduces the youngest explorers to the world of wildlife, using a child-friendly format.

Four pages are devoted to each of the 32 high-interest creatures, including dolphins, tigers, frogs, penguins, wolves, and pandas. More than 150 of National Geographic's most charming animal photos illustrate the profiles, which feature just the kind of facts that little kids want to know—the creature's size, diet, home, and more.

Animal totem : La chute des bêtes

Spirit Animals: Fall of the Beasts

N° 1 - Titre à venir

Book 1: Immortal Guardians

In the world of Erdas, every child must discover if they will summon a spirit animal, a rare and incredible gift. Conor, Abeke, Meilin, and Rollan were rare even among those few. They summoned legendary animals—brave guardians who were reborn to protect their world.

Now more of these legends are appearing across Erdas, bonded to special children. But a dark force has emerged. Older than memory, it has slept for centuries beneath the surface of the world. With the power to tear away spirit animals, it begins a rampage that will be felt in every corner of Erdas. If the young heroes can't stop it, the darkness will first consume the spirit animals ... and then the world.

La maison abandonnée

Summer's End

One terrifying summer can stay with you forever.

It's the summer before high school and Jacob and his friends are determined to make it a memorable one. This may be the last couple of months they have together; once school starts, they'll be going their separate ways. Ichiro's family is moving to Japan. And while Jacob and the twins, Hayden and Hannah, are staying behind in Valeton, they'll be going to different high schools. When they discover an old abandoned home on a remote island of their Muskoka community, things suddenly take an unexpected turn. The kids find themselves inexplicably drawn to the house that had once been a sanatorium for children with Tuberculosis and learn that it has some haunting secrets to hide.

JOEL A. SUTHERLAND is a mild-mannered reference librarian by day, and a fiction writer and editor by night. He is the author of Lieux hantés 5, Be a Writing Superstar!, and Frozen Blood, a horror novel for adults. Joel lives in Courtice, Ontario.

Au boulot, Léo!

Liam Takes a Stand

Théo and Matéo are identical twins who do identical things. But their constant striving to outdo each other means their little brother, Léo, is always left out. When Théo's Lemonade Universe and Matéo's Lemonade Multiverse open for business, there's no role for Léo. He does odd jobs around the neighborhood while Théo and Matéo's competition spirals into overdrive and their lemonade stands get increasingly, outrageously out of hand.

But then Léo takes a stand with his own business venture—a simple model based on his observations of what not to do—and gives the twins a run for their money. Illustrated with lively cartoon-style art highlighting the hilarious one-upmanship, this is a spirited underdog story about siblings and strategic thinking.

TROY WILSON has had a number of stories published in children's magazines, including Chirp and chickaDEE. Au boulot, Léo! is his fourth picture book. He never ran a lemonade stand as a kid, and he claims he never competed with his younger brother—except when they played video games. Troy lives in Victoria, British Columbia.

JOSH HOLINATY graduated from the Alberta College of Art & Design and has created illustrations for clients such as The New York Times, Wired, and The Walrus. Josh is also the illustrator of A Beginner's Guide to Immortality: From Alchemy to Avatars and It's Catching. Originally from Alberta, he now lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Méchant Minou

Méchant Minou se creuse la tête

Bad Kitty Takes the Test

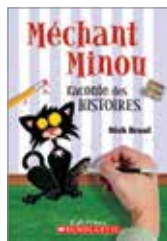

Based on his previous bad behaviour, the Society of Cat Aptitude has determined that Méchant Minou is not only a bad kitty but a bad cat. In order to redeem his feline status, Méchant Minou must take an aptitude test to determine if he deserves to be a cat. If he fails, he will no longer be able to be a cat. With the help of Chatty Kitty, who is the instructor at Cat School, and Uncle Murray, who thinks he's just there to renew his driver's license, Méchant Minou learns all about being a cat and a little about himself.

NICK BRUEL is the author and illustrator of New York Times bestseller Boing! and the Méchant Minou series, among others. He is a freelance illustrator and cartoonist, and during his down time, he collects PEZ dispensers and grows tomatoes in the backyard. He lives in Tarrytown, New York.

Dream Jumper

NEW SERIES!

N° 1 - Prisonniers du cauchemar

#1: Nightmare Escape

Ben has a problem. When he sleeps he dreams, and when he dreams, they're all nightmares! But he can also jump into other people's dreams. So when his friends start falling victim to an evil dream-monster that prevents them from waking, Ben knows he has to help them. Easier said than done when dreams can shift and the monster knows his way around the ever-changing landscape of the mind! With help from a talking rabbit-companion who has a mysterious past, Ben might just be able to defeat the monster and save his friends... if he can figure out how to use the power within him against his enemies.

GREG GRUNBERG is best known for his roles in the award-winning series Heroes, Alias, and Felicity. Le gardien des rêves is his first graphic novel, which was inspired by dreams described by his son, Ben. Greg lives in Los Angeles, California.

LUCAS TURNBLOOM is an award-winning cartoonist and illustrator who's best known for his comic strip, Imagine THIS. He was a contributing artist for Darkhorse's Axe Cop graphic novel series. His work has also appeared in USA Today, and TIME.com. Lucas currently resides in San Diego.

Chloé et sa copine de lecture

Madeline Finn and the Library Dog

Chloé DOES NOT like to read.

Not books.

Not magazines.

Not even the menu on the ice cream truck.

Fortunately, Chloé meets Bonnie, a library dog. Reading out loud to Bonnie isn't so bad. When Chloé gets stuck, Bonnie doesn't mind. Chloé can pet her until she figures the word out.

As it turns out, it's fun to read when you're not afraid of making mistakes. Bonnie teaches Chloé that it's okay to go slow. And to keep trying.

LISA PAPP grew up telling stories. Saved in a notebook full of sketches, her early tales featured her cat and stuffed animals. Today, Lisa is still making up stories and painting pictures, only now, they fill the pages of children's books. She lives in Pennsylvania.

Twig

*One, two, three. One, two three.
Why won't someone play with me?*

Twig is a stick insect, long and thin like the twig of a tree. It's her first day at Bug School, where she hopes to learn lots and make new friends. But no one will talk to her... and no one will play with her at lunch. No one notices her at all—not even her teacher Miss Orb. Perhaps she's blending in with the branches a little too well! Finally, Twig speaks up for herself and Miss Orb comes up with a plan to help Twig stand out.

Aura Parker's winsome illustrations are a pure delight. Kids of all ages will pour over the adorable details as well as enjoy the numbers and counting elements throughout the story. The endpapers are a delight and each includes a search-and-find activity.

AURA PARKER is an illustrator, writer and designer who creates prints, textiles and picture books. Her work is joyful, imaginative and brimming with details to explore. She works from a studio in Sydney, Australia, and this is the first picture book she has both written and illustrated.

DES ROCHES DE FEU

LES ROCHES IGNÉES SE FORMENT À PARTIR D'UN LIQUIDE EN FUSION APPELÉ magma. Le mot « igné » vient d'un nom grec qui signifie « de feu ». Des masses de magma se forment dans les profondeurs de la Terre et remontent lentement à la surface. Si elles atteignent l'extérieur, la roche liquide jaillit sous forme de lave. À mesure que les couches de lave s'accumulent, elles forment une montagne appelée volcan. Les roches volcaniques refroidissent assez rapidement, ce qui empêche les minéraux de former de grands cristaux. L'obsidienne, le basalte et la ponce comptent parmi les roches volcaniques les plus courantes.

Dans bien des cas, le magma ne possède pas assez d'énergie pour monter jusqu'à la surface. Il commence donc à refroidir en profondeur. Il s'agit d'un long processus qui permet aux gros cristaux des minéraux de se développer. On appelle les roches ainsi formées des roches plutoniques, en l'honneur de Pluton, le dieu romain des enfers. On les trouve à la surface seulement une fois que l'érosion a fait disparaître les couches de roche qui les recouvrent. Les roches plutoniques les plus communes sont le granite, la diorite et le gabbro.

MÊME S'ILS RESSEMBLENT À DE MINCES FILS, LES CHEVEUX DE PELÉ SONT DES ROCHES VOLCANIQUES!

L'OBSIDIENNE

Une roche volcanique qui refroidit si vite que les cristaux n'ont pas le temps de se former.

LANDÉSITE

Roche ignée à grain fin dont les cristaux se forment lorsque la lave refroidit lentement.

LE GRANITE-PORPHYRE

Roche plutonique à grain grossier aux grands cristaux de quartz et de feldspath.

LE GABBRO

Roche plutonique à grain grossier composée de fer et de magnésium.

LA PONCE

Roche volcanique extrêmement légère formée lorsque la lave chargée de gaz refroidit rapidement.

GARE AUX CENDRES

En Sicile, des rivières de lave brûlante dévalent les pentes abruptes d'un volcan. Entre les énormes nuages de cendres volcaniques peuvent se cacher des rivières de lave. Comme ils remontent la limite du sol dans l'espace, ils ont tendance à refroidir la surface de la Terre.

Don't Stress: How to Handle Life's Little Problems

Being a kid can be stressful. With so little control over schedules and surroundings, it's easy to feel overwhelmed and out of control. With this in mind, award-winning author Helaine Becker has created a wonderful playbook for dealing with stress—in a stress-free format!

Readers can flip to any page in the book, and read about common, everyday scenarios that cause stress, then get advice on techniques to help them manage emotions, and make calmer choices.

With an accessible, and light-hearted tone, this book will help kids learn how to create a happier and more relaxed approach to school, friendships, parents, homework and more!

HELAINE BECKER has written many laugh-out-loud funny books for children, including the bestselling Un porc-épic dans un sapin et Vive le vent d'hiver! She is extremely active in the world of children's literature, in addition to being a swimmer, cyclist, runner, and read-aholic. Helaine lives in Toronto, Ontario.
