Star Wars™: Jedi Academy #5: The Force Oversleeps

By Jarrett Krosoczka

Victor is back at Jedi Academy and he truly defines the definition of sophomore, specifically a sophomore in a slump. He was excited about Drama Club and hoped to get the lead in this year's musical, but his best friend, Artemis, got the role. On top of that his sister, Christina is getting ready to graduate from Jedi Academy. She's always taken care of him, and Victor is lost now that she's not around as much.

Can Victor roll with the (force) punches? Or will he revert to his old ways and go back to being the class clown?

Wings of Fire Book 8: Escaping Peril

By Tui T. Sutherland

Peril has been loyal to Queen Scarlet, who used her fatal firescales to kill countless dragons in the SkyWing arena. Now, Peril is loyal to Clay, the only dragonet who has ever been her friend. So when Scarlet threatens Jade Mountain Academy, Peril sets off to find her former queen, stop her, and save the day, no matter what it takes.

There's just one problem: a strangely persistent SeaWing, Turtle, insists on coming along, too. Turtle is worried about his friends, who left to search for Scarlet and haven't returned. Peril is worried that she might accidentally burn Turtle — or burn him on purpose, for being so annoying — and frustrated that she keeps saying and doing the wrong things. She can't escape her firescales, and she can't escape her reputation as the deadliest dragon in Pyrrhia.

So when she's offered a chance to trade everything for a new life, Peril has to decide who she's really loyal to . . . and whether her own scales might actually be worth saving.

Praise for the Wings of Fire series:

"[A] perfect adventure for young fantasy fans to sink their teeth into." —School Library Journal

"Dramatic battle scenes, double-crosses, and one seriously deranged queen makes Wings of Fire a series that should have broad appeal for middle-grade fantasy fans." —Booklist

"Fast-paced and detailed, this first installment in a new adventure series is entertaining." —Kirkus

"Readers of all ages will be enchanted by the humanistic storyline and the page-turning excitement." —Library Media Connection

Victor Shmud, Total Expert #1: Let's Do a Thing!

By Jim Benton

Victor Shmud has been many things: Knuckle Doctor, a Hunter of Ghost Bears, a Tattoo Artist, the Guy at the Restaurant that Puts the Sugar in Those Little Envelopes, a Computer Scientist, an Octopus Wrestler, and a Wedding Planner. In fact, he's been nearly everything, but is definitely not a Guy Who Cleans Up Bedrooms yet. But his newest gig is a Beautifuller (yes, that's a word). He's also a Licensed Wordmaker. He can make anyone gorgeous, with a gob of his beauty treatment complete with Mustard Molecules.

But before he can work his beautifuller magic, he's vaporized along with his associate, the very fluffy Dumpylumps, by a video game. Will Victor ever get back to Earth? Also, is it someone's birthday . . . and will there be cupcakes?

Shmud at School

Victor walked into the classroom and took a seat at the teacher's desk at the front of the room.

His teacher, Mrs. Nozzleburp, smiled sweetly at him, with a smile that had very nearly the correct number of teeth in it.

"Victor," she said, "you know that that desk is for the teacher. The smaller desks are for the students."

Ugly Cat & Pablo

By Isabel Quintero

Illustrated by Tom Knight

Ugly Cat is dying for a paleta, or ice pop, and his friend Pablo is determined to help him get one by scaring a little girl who is enjoying a coconut paleta in the park. Things go horribly wrong when, instead of being scared, the little girl picks Pablo up and declares that he would make a great snack for her pet snake. Oh, and there's also the small problem that Ugly Cat may have inadvertently swallowed Pablo in all of the commotion!

Ugly Cat and his impeccably dressed mouse friend, Pablo, are an unlikely and dynamic duo who will win young readers over with their ridiculously silly antics and their search for tasty treats.

Happily Ever Afterlife #1: Ghostcoming!

By Orli Zuravicky

Lucy has just joined the afterlife, and as a brand-new ghost she's mostly see-through, not able to stand or sit normally, stuck in the ballet clothes she was wearing before she crossed over . . . and stuck in middle school. Can't a ghost get a break?

But then the cutest (ghost) boy she's ever seen turns out to be her very own guide to school, and things start looking brighter. Maybe she's not quite solid yet, but Lucy is definitely going to make this the best afterlife ever!

Happily Ever Afterlife #2: Crushed

By Orli Zuravicky

Even ghost girls can create a lot of drama at Limbo Central Middle School!

Lucy is ready for her next challenge at Limbo Central Middle School: joining a club. Or actually, forming one. Lucy and her best friend, Cecily, were awesome ballet dancers in life, so obviously they can start a Dance Club in the afterlife!

Not according to Georgia Sinclair. The head of the cheerleading squad wants to forbid cheerleaders from even trying out for Lucy and Cecily's club.

Who knew starting a Dance Club would be all about drama?

The girls are excited, but the competition is stiff, and things are about to take a magical turn that no one expects . . . Wicked Jack Frost has stolen Carmen's three magic objects: a pompom, a hair bow, and a megaphone. He's sick and tired of all this cheer, and he's determined to take the prestigious competition trophy and make it the centerpiece of his new trophy case at the Ice Castle!

If Carmen doesn't find her magic objects soon, the cheerleading competition will be a complete disaster – and so will cheerleading everywhere! Rachel and Kirsty can't let that happen. So many girls and boys train really hard at cheerleading, and it's not fair for Jack Frost to ruin it for everyone!

What began with a reimagining of Peter Pan and Wendy now twists into a stunning version of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland!

Umberland (Everland, Book 2)

By Wendy Spinale

Gwen, Pete, and the others have escaped from Everland. But the safe haven they hoped to find at Alnwick Castle doesn't exist. With the Queen of England on her deathbed, Duchess Alyssa has stepped in to lead, but things have gotten worse as the cure Doc created for the Horologia virus has mutated, accelerating the disease. The only possible solution he can think of is to go back to the virus's origin: an extinct poisonous apple.

Legend has it a tree bearing the apple might be found at the center of a deadly labyrinth hidden deep within Germany. A place that no one in their right mind enters. Leaving Pete in charge of the survivors, Alyssa sets out with only her sword, her wits, and the help of Maddox Hadder, a wild boy who oversees the castle gardens. To get to the center of the maze, she'll be forced to battle monsters more terrifying than her darkest nightmares.

But can anyone truly survive the madness of the maze? And what if there's no apple to be found there?

The Lines We Cross

By Randa Abdel-Fattah

Michael usually concerns himself with basketball and hanging out with his friends, but every once in a while, his parents drag him to meetings and rallies with their anti-immigrant group. And it all makes sense to Michael.

Until Mina, a beautiful girl from the other side of the protest lines, shows up at his school, and turns out to be funny, smart – and a Muslim refugee from Afghanistan. Suddenly, his parents' politics seem much more complicated.

Mina has already had a long and arduous journey leaving behind her besieged home in Afghanistan, and the frigid welcome at her new school is daunting. She just wants to settle in and help her parents get their restaurant up and running. But nothing about her new community will be that easy. As tensions increase, lines are drawn. Michael has to decide where he stands. Mina has to protect herself and her family. Both have to choose what they want their world to look like.

The Wonder of Us

By Kim Culbertson

Riya and Abby are:

Best friends.

Complete opposites.

Living on different continents.

Currently mad at each other.

About to travel around Europe.

Riya moved to Berlin, Germany, with her family for junior year, while Abby stayed behind in their small California town. They thought it would be easy to keep up their friendship – it's only a year and they've been best friends since preschool. But instead, they ended up fighting and not being there for each other. So Riya proposes an epic adventure to fix their friendship. Two weeks, six countries, unimaginable fun. But two small catches:

They haven't talked in weeks.

They've both been keeping secrets.

Can Riya and Abby find their way back to each other among lush countrysides and dazzling cities, or does growing up mean growing apart?

The Last Full Measure (Divided We Fall, Book 3)

By Trent Reedy

In a YA trilogy like no other, Trent Reedy has raised the most primal questions of our national existence: Do we owe our greatest loyalty to our friends? Our state? Our country? Our party? How do we reconcile our individual rights and common needs? What keeps us all united – and what happens if we fall apart?

Now, in this third book, the Second Civil War has come to an end in Idaho. The Feds have taken the fight to other fronts, and Danny and his friends are free of U.S. dominance. But that freedom comes with considerable costs, from Danny's disturbing flashbacks to the war, to the Brotherhood of the White Eagle, whose security for Freedom Lake looks more like outright thuggery. After Danny makes a shocking discovery about the Brotherhood's final aims, he and his friends lead a group of townspeople on a dangerous journey across a ravaged Idaho, hoping to build a better society of their own, and fulfill the dreams they had in what once was the United States.

Revenge of the Happy Campers

By Jennifer Ziegler

The Brewster triplets, Dawn, Darby, and Delaney, are always up for an adventure, whether it's ruining a wedding (for good reasons!) or turning a Christmas pageant tradition on its head. But now they're about to go where they've never gone before: camping!

They're spending spring break with Aunt Jane, at the campground she and their mom used to go as kids. But the first morning there, they run into a trio of boys, and one starts bragging about his plan to become the President of the United States. Clearly this is Dawn's destiny, and the two, well, don't become fast friends.

This camping thing is sure looking like a bad idea. And when their final contest ends with a washed-out bridge, an injured boy, and a rainstorm, it might take six future leaders of the country to keep this from being the worst trip ever!

Jennifer Ziegler is the author of Sass & Serendipity and How Not to Be Popular. She lives in Austin, Texas, with her husband, author Chris Barton, and their four children.

Saving the planet has never been as tough as in Goldy Moldavsky's hilarious follow-up to Kill the Boy Band!

No Good Deed

By Goldy Moldavsky

He's not asking for much. All Gregor Maravilla wants to do is feed all of the starving children on the planet. So when he's selected to join Camp Save the World, a special summer program for teenage activists from all over the country to champion their cause, Gregor's sure he's on the path to becoming Someone Great.

But then a prize is announced. It will be awarded at the end of summer to the activist who shows the most promise in their campaign. Gregor's sure he has the prize in the bag, especially compared to some of the other campers' campaigns. Like Eat Dirt, a preposterous campaign started by Ashley Woodstone, a famous young actor who most likely doesn't even deserve to be at the camp. Everywhere Gregor goes, Ashley seems to show up ready to ruin things. Plus, the prize has an unforeseen side effect, turning a quiet summer into cutthroat warfare where campers stop focusing on their own campaigns and start sabotaging everyone else's.

But while her mother, the queen, remains busy at the war front, in the Dark Kingdom of Dorjhalon, the corrupt king is plotting. King Bain wants control of both kingdoms, and his plan will fling Evelayn into the throne much sooner than she expected.

In order to defeat Bain and his sons, Evelayn will quickly have to come into her ability to shapeshift, and rely on the alluring Lord Tanvir. But not everyone is what they seem, and the balance between the Light and Dark comes at a steep price.

Foxcraft #2: The Elders

By Inbali Iserles

Isla's search for her missing brother, Pirie, has brought her to the vast Wildlands. The forest is a treacherous place for a fox cub, but Isla is talented in foxcraft – ancient arts of cunning known only to her kind.

Skilled though she is, Isla's grasp of foxcraft is still new. And she's not alone . . . A cruel and mysterious fox stalks the forest, with the power to enslave others to his will. In order to survive, Isla must learn to trust in the rustic Wildlands foxes.

But there are tales of others – a council of Elders who are masters of foxcraft, and who warily guard its most potent secrets. If Isla wishes to master her gifts and find her brother, then the Elders may be her only hope.

Revolution (The Sixties Trilogy #2)

By Deborah Wiles

It's 1964, and Sunny's town is being invaded. Or at least that's what the adults of Greenwood, Mississippi, are saying. All Sunny knows is that people from up north are coming to help people register to vote. They're calling it Freedom Summer.

Meanwhile, Sunny can't help but feel like her house is being invaded, too. She has a new stepmother, a new brother, and a new sister crowding her life, giving her little room to breathe. And things get even trickier when Sunny and her brother are caught sneaking into the local swimming pool.

Award-winning author Deborah Wiles uses stories and images to tell the riveting story of a certain time and place – and of kids who, in a world where everyone is choosing sides, must figure out how to stand up for themselves and fight for what's right.

Deborah Wiles is the author of the picture book Freedom Summer and three novels, including Each Little Bird That Sings. Deborah lives in Atlanta, Georgia. You can visit her on the web at www.deborahwiles.com.

Unidentified Suburban Object

By Mike Jung

Comic and satirical, but also full of painful truths about being both a bright, sensitive middle schooler, and a so-called “model-minority” in a decidedly NOT-diverse town.

The next person who compares Chloe Cho with famous violinist Abigail Yang is going to HEAR it. Chloe has just about had it with people not knowing the difference between someone who's Chinese, Japanese, or Korean. She's had it with people thinking that everything she does well – getting good grades, winning first chair in the orchestra, et CETERA – are because she's ASIAN.

Of course, her own parents don't want to have anything to DO with their Korean background. Any time Chloe asks them a question they change the subject. They seem perfectly happy to be the only Asian family in town. It's only when Chloe's with her best friend, Shelly, that she doesn't feel like a total alien.

Fortune Falls

By Jenny Goebel

Four-leaf clovers really do bring good fortune, and owning a rabbit's foot is the secret to success.

Sadie is an Unlucky. And things will only get worse as she gets older, which is why Unluckies are sent away at age twelve to protect those around them.

Sadie can't stand the thought of leaving home, so she and her friend, Cooper, devise a plan to reverse her bad luck. But when their scheme accidentally results in a broken mirror, the situation turns dire. Because for Sadie, seven years bad luck isn't an inconvenience — it's practically a death sentence.

Can a girl who's never so much as found a single lucky penny change her fortune? Or will she be forced to celebrate her twelfth birthday by saying farewell to everyone she loves?

Jenny Goebel is the author of Grave Images and Mission Hurricane. She lives in Denver with her husband and three sons.

A sweeping, stunning story about the surprising directions our hearts can take.

The Beautiful Lost

By Luanne Rice

Here are three things to know about Maia:

1. Ever since her mother left, Maia's struggled with depression – which once got so bad, she had to go to an institution for a while. She doesn't want to go back.
2. Maia's sure that if she finds her mother, if the two of them can talk about whale songs and constellations, then everything will be okay again.
3. She's in love with Billy, the handsome, brooding boy who lives in the group home in town. He doesn't seem to know that Maia exists . . . until now.

When Maia sets off on a road trip in search of her mom, Billy unexpectedly comes along. They drive up the East Coast, stopping along the way for lobster rolls and lighthouses. Maia learns that Billy has dark secrets of his own – and wants to outrun his past, too. But what will the future hold if they reach their destination?

Unbecoming

By Jenny Downham

Three women.

Three generations.

Three secrets.

Katie's life is falling apart. Her best friend thinks she's a freak, her mother, Caroline, controls every aspect of her life, and her estranged grandmother, Mary, appears as if out of nowhere. Mary has dementia and needs lots of care, and when Katie starts putting together Mary's life story, secrets, and lies are uncovered: Mary's illegitimate baby, her zest for life and freedom and men, the way she lived her life to the fullest yet suffered huge sacrifices along the way.

As the relationship between Mary and Caroline is explored, Katie begins to understand her own mother's behavior, and from that insight, the terrors about her sexuality, her future, and her younger brother are all put into perspective.

Prisoner of War: A Novel of World War II

By Michael P. Spradlin

Survive the war. Outlast the enemy. Stay alive.

That's what Henry Forrest has to do. When he lies about his age to join the Marines, Henry never imagines he'll face anything worse than his own father's cruelty. But his unit is shipped off to the Philippines, where the heat is unbearable, the conditions are brutal, and Henry's dreams of careless adventuring are completely dashed.

Then the Japanese invade the islands, and US forces there surrender. As a prisoner of war, Henry faces one horror after another. Yet among his fellow captives, he finds kindness, respect, even brotherhood. A glimmer of light in the darkness. And he'll need to hold tight to the hope they offer if he wants to win the fight for his country, his freedom . . . and his life.

Michael P. Spradlin's latest novel tenderly explores the harsh realities of the Bataan Death March and captivity on the Pacific front during World War II.

An edge-of-your-seat survival story that takes two lost souls into the eye of a hurricane!

Into the Hurricane

By Neil Connelly

TWO PEOPLE WITH LOSSES

Eli and Max both have good reasons to go to the lighthouse on Shackles Island. For Max, it's an old vacation spot, the rare location where she has only good memories – so it's the right place to scatter her dad's ashes. For Eli, it's the highest point near his Louisiana home, with the clearest view of the rocks where his sister died – so it's the right place to end his own life as well.

A STORM WITHOUT LIMITS

But neither of them expected the other, nor the storm. Because Hurricane Celeste is roaring toward Shackles Island, and its power will break bridges, slash electric lines, and stir up deadly wildlife – some of it human. When the ruthless Odenkirk family steals Max's Jeep with her most precious possession inside, she and Eli begin a desperate quest to get it back and get off the island . . . until they realize they must go into the hurricane.

In the Shadow of the Sun

By Anne Sibley O'Brien

North Korea is known as the most repressive country on Earth, with a dictatorial leader, a starving population, and harsh punishment for rebellion.

Perfect place for a family vacation, right?

Yet that's exactly where Mia Andrews finds herself, on a tour with her aid-worker father and fractious older brother Simon. Mia was adopted from South Korea as a baby, and the trip raises tough questions about who she really is. Then her dad is arrested for spying, just as forbidden photographs of North Korean slave-labour camps fall into Mia's hands. The only way to save Dad: get the pictures into China, over a hundred miles away. Thus Mia and Simon set off on a harrowing journey without food, money, or shelter, in a land where anyone who sees them might turn them in, and getting caught could mean prison – or worse.

Rooted in years of research and written with deep sympathy for the North Korean people, In the Shadow of the Sun is an unforgettable story of strength and survival.

One wall. One family divided. One girl's determination.

A Night Divided

By Jennifer A. Nielsen

A stunning thriller from New York Times bestselling author Jennifer A. Nielsen about a girl who must escape to freedom after the Berlin Wall divides her family between east and west.

With the rise of the Berlin Wall, twelve-year-old Gerta finds her family suddenly divided. She, her mother, and her brother Fritz live on the east side, controlled by the Soviets. Her father, her middle brother, who had gone west to find work, cannot return home. Gerta is too dangerous to watch the wall, to the thoughts of freedom, yet she sees the East German guns trained on their own families, her neighbours, and in their own city.

No one can be sure if Gerta and her family find their way to freedom.

The World From Up Here

By Cecilia Galante

Wren Baker has never felt brave a day in her life. She doesn't even know what she's afraid of, really. Only that if she raises her voice or leaves her mark or ventures too far from home, she'll risk falling flat on her face.

But that all changes when Wren's cousin, Silver, walks into her life. Silver is totally fearless. Maybe that's why she's the most popular girl in the sixth grade. She dares Wren to take risks, to live out loud, to finally spread her wings. And when Silver decides to undertake the journey of a lifetime, Wren is forced to make a decision: Is she in or is she out?

There's only one way Wren will ever learn to fly. It's time for her to stand at the edge of the unknown . . . and jump.

Full of heartache and hope, The World From Up Here is a tender, moving story about old secrets and new friendships, anxiety and Asperger syndrome, and what it means to face the things that scare us most.

Praise for The World from Up Here:

"Galante creates a realistically complex character in Wren, sensitively portraying her anxieties and her realizations about how she holds herself back." —Publishers Weekly

"Galante's penned a poignant tale of self-discovery." —Kirkus Reviews

A story about grieving hearts, broken families, and how speaking out can save them both.

Stealing Our Way Home

By Cecilia Galante

Saying goodbye is never easy.

Everything changed after Pippa and Jack's mother died last spring. Pippa stopped speaking, Jack started picking fights, and their father's struggling business began to fail. Now, with school starting again, Pippa doesn't know how she'll manage a class presentation on Spartan warriors when she can't even find the words to tell her father that she wishes he were home more. And Jack is struggling to understand his feelings for the mysterious girl next door.

But when Jack and Pippa realize that their dad is getting so desperate for cash to keep the family afloat that he might be going to extreme – and illegal – lengths to make ends meet, they are faced with the biggest decision of their lives. How far are they willing to go to keep their family together?

Stealing Our Way Home is a poignant, deeply affecting novel about falling apart, finding your voice, and the power of letting go.

The Secret Grave: A Hauntings Novel

By Lois Ruby

Hannah is used to feeling ignored.

When her best friends leave town for the summer and her four siblings' chaotic lives all pull in different directions, she's left to wander the creepy old Victorian house they live in named Nightshade (after the poison) all on her own. To fill her time, Hannah sneaks off to explore Midnight Lake, and meets Cady, a girl who seems to know exactly how she's feeling.

But as the two girls get close, Cady becomes possessive and demanding. She won't step foot in Nightshade, but she wants Hannah to defy her parents and sneak out for a moonlight swim so they can truly become best friends forever. And when Hannah discovers a cemetery beyond the lake with a hundred-year-old grave that belongs to a Cadence Stanhope, she starts to wonder about Cady. Could her new friend be a ghost . . . one who's trying to drag her to a watery grave?

A brand-new Goosebumps arc narrated by the most iconic and evil character of the series, Slappy!

Goosebumps SlappyWorld #2: Attack of the Jack

By R.L. Stine

Devin and his sister Violet are visiting their Uncle Jack for the summer. He lives in an old house by the seashore. Jack was a sailor and he has collected strange and fascinating items from the sea. Exploring a back room, Devin and Violet discover a locked trunk. A pirate's chest. The trunk is wrapped in old, heavy chains and locked with a huge rusted lock. But they manage to get it open.

They lift the lid slowly-and see that it's filled with antique jack-in-the-boxes. Huh? One box is hidden under the others, covered in dust. It plays an odd, unpleasant song. Up pops a very ugly, mean-looking puppet, an old pirate with a dirty red bandana over his long greasy hair, scars on his cheeks, a beard, and one eye missing. Thanks for letting Sailor Jack out! he rasps, bouncing on his spring. Devin and Violet now face new and troubling questions: Will Jack return them to their uncle? Just how much is a pirate's promise worth?

This Is Just a Test

By Madelyn Rosenberg and
Wendy Wan-Long Shang

David Da-Wei Horowitz has a lot on his plate. He would have enough to do preparing for his upcoming bar mitzvah even if the planning didn't involve trying to please both his Jewish and Chinese grandmothers, who argue about everything. They even have a cook-off battle of the latkes. But David just wants everyone to be happy.

That includes his friend Scott, who is determined to win their upcoming trivia tournament but doesn't like their teammate – and David's best friend – Hector. Scott and David begin digging a fallout shelter just in case this Cold War stuff with Russia turns south . . . but David's not so convinced he wants to spend forever in an underground bunker with Scott anymore. Maybe it would be better if Hector and Kelli Ann came with them. But that would mean David has to figure out how to stand up for Hector and talk to Kelli Ann first. Some days, surviving nuclear war feels like the least of David's problems.

Arf: A Bowser and Birdie Novel By Spencer Quinn

Why would anyone break into 19 Gentilly Lane? That’s where the Gaux family lives, and everyone knows they have nothing worth stealing. More important, the house is usually guarded by Birdie Gaux’s dog, Bowser, a large and handsome fellow with a big set of sharp teeth.

Now Birdie is looking worried and Bowser is on the trail of something rotten. Who was behind the break in? Why is a girl with green hair asking odd questions about what happened to Birdie’s dad, a policeman who was killed in the line of duty years ago? Worst of all, why is the whole town starting to stink of limeade aftershave and CAT?!

The death of Birdie’s father may be a cold case, but Bowser can tell it’s heating up fast. Someone is coming after Birdie and her family, and Bowser must be ready to protect them from anything. Even that awful cat.

Spencer Quinn is the author of the New York Times bestselling Chet and Bernie mystery books and the stand-alone novel The Right Side, both for adults. His novels for kids include the NYT bestselling Bowser and Birdie series. He lives with his wife, Diana, and dogs, Audrey and Pearl, on Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

Bow Wow: A Bowser and Birdie Novel By Spencer Quinn

A bull shark in the swamp? No one in the Louisiana town of St. Roch believes it at first, but when a local boy has a face-to-face encounter with the toothy monster, every big fisherman is called out for the hunt. There’s a big cash bounty on the shark.

Sharp-eyed Birdie Gaux and her handsome dog Bowser can’t help noticing that shark fever is causing some shady doings in town. For instance, where is Snoozy, the clerk who works at the Gaux family fishing store? He’s the town’s best fisherman, but suddenly he’s missing. Is a rival bounty hunter behind Snoozy’s suspicious disappearance? Or perhaps the marine biologist who said he’ll do anything to keep the shark alive?

Birdie and Bowser are determined to find Snoozy and bring him home safe, but the job is more dangerous than they know. Bowser better practice his paddling: He and Birdie are heading for deep waters . . .

Class Dismissed

By Allan Woodrow

Class 507 is the worst class Ms. Bryce has ever taught. And she would know – she's been teaching forever. They are so terrible that when a science experiment goes disastrously wrong again, Ms. Bryce has had it and quits in the middle of the lesson. But through a mix-up, the school office never finds out.

Which means . . . Class 507 is teacher-free!

The class figures if they don't tell anyone, it'll be one big holiday. Kyle and his friends can play games all day. Samantha decides she'll read magazines and give everyone much needed fashion advice. Adam can doodle everywhere without getting in trouble. Eric will be able to write stories with no one bothering him. And Maggie . . . well, as the smartest kid in the class, she has an ambitious plan for this epic opportunity.

But can Class 507 keep the principal, the rest of the students, and their parents from finding out . . . or will the greatest school year ever turn into the worst disaster in school history?

Allan Woodrow is the author of Class Dismissed, The Pet War, and the Zachary Ruthless series, as well as other books for young readers, written under secret names. Allan lives near Chicago with his family. For more about Allan and his books, visit him online at www.allanwoodrow.com.

An enchanting middle-grade debut of

Excerpt from The Apprentice Witch:

Arianwyn closed her eyes, breathing deeply and steadily, and pictured the glyphs all together.

There was a very faint pull of magic from somewhere nearby. It flowed toward her and she felt the softest tingle as magic brushed against her skin.

The cool metal of the wand pressed into her palm.

She could hear Miss Newam breathing in and out through her nose with the tiniest whistling sound.

She kept the glyphs focused in her mind.

Briå: air, flight, transformation.

A small surge of power zipped through Arianwyn as the flow of energy connected with her.

Åluna: water, healing, divination.

The sensation was like cold pins and needles. She felt dizzy.

Erte: earth, strength, protection, life.

The glyphs formed and died in the darkness like rare flowers.

Årdra: fire, energy, defense.

And then she saw it, hanging there, blooming in her mind among the other glyphs.

Not now! Arianwyn thought, and tried to blink it away.

It was an impossible glyph. One that didn't really exist except in her imagination.

magic and courage in a world of witches!

The Apprentice Witch

By James Nicol

Will Arianwyn ever become a real witch?

Arianwyn has flunked her witch's assessment: She knows she's doomed. Declared an apprentice and sent to the town of Lull in disgrace, Arianwyn may never become a real witch like everyone else – much to the glee of her arch-rival, Gimma.

But the remote Lull is not as boring as it seems. Strange things are being sighted in the woods, and a dangerous infestation of hex creeps throughout the town. Then the worst thing Arianwyn can imagine arrives in Lull: Gimma turns up on vacation determined to make her life miserable.

Despite being a little over her head, Arianwyn starts to get the hang of being a witch, even if she's only an apprentice. But there's one thing she's wrong about: The worst is still to come. For a mysterious darkness has begun to haunt her spells, and there may be much more at stake than just her pride . . .

Advance Praise for The Apprentice Witch:

"The Apprentice Witch will at once open a new and imaginative world and feel like the book you have loved forever." –Jennifer A. Nielsen, NYT bestselling author of The False Prince

"Nicol's debut offers a fresh take on the genre . . . Infused with mystery, adventure, and bundles of charm." –The Bookseller (UK)

"It delivers mystery and action in a whirlwind of cinematic, magical adventure which is all fuelled by adrenaline, friendship, and bravery. Finally, it all climaxes in a brilliant and vivid ending."
–Mr. Ripley's Enchanted Books (UK)

"The plot moves along at a steady pace that gives the reader just enough time to enjoy the magical details that debut author, James Nicol, has seamlessly woven into the story . . . [and] quickens dramatically as we reach the cinematic climax when the book becomes impossible to put down."

The Forgetting

By Sharon Cameron

What isn't written, isn't remembered. Even your crimes. Nadia lives in the city of Canaan, where life is safe and structured, hemmed in by white stone walls and no memory of what came before. But every twelve years the city descends into the bloody chaos of the Forgetting, a day of no remorse, when each person's memories – of parents, children, love, life, and self – are lost. Unless they have been written.

In Canaan, your book is your truth and your identity, and Nadia knows exactly who hasn't written the truth. Because Nadia is the only person in Canaan who has never forgotten.

But when Nadia begins to use her memories to solve the mysteries of Canaan, she discovers truths about herself and Gray, the handsome glassblower, that will change her world forever. As the anarchy of the Forgetting approaches, Nadia and Gray must stop an unseen enemy that threatens both their city and their own existence – before the people can forget the truth. And before Gray can forget her.

To Catch a Cheat: A Jackson Greene Novel

By Varian Johnson

Jackson Greene is riding high. He is officially retired from conning, so Principal Kelsey is mostly off his back. His friends have great new projects of their own. And as he's been hanging out a lot with Gaby de la Cruz, he thinks maybe, just maybe, they'll soon have their first kiss.

Then Jackson receives a link to a faked security video that seems to show him and the rest of Gang Greene flooding the school gym. The thugs behind the video threaten to pass it to the principal – unless Jackson steals an advance copy of the school's toughest exam.

So Gang Greene reunites for their biggest job yet. To get the test and clear their names, they'll have to outrun the school's security cameras, outwit a nosy member of the Honor Board, and outmaneuver the blackmailers while setting a trap for them in turn. And as they execute another exciting caper full of twists and turns, they'll prove that sometimes it takes a thief to catch a cheat.

Completely hilarious, a tiny bit icky, and delightfully spooky scarytales!

Beanstalker and Other Hilarious Scarytales

By Kiersten White

Once upon a time, a girl skipped into the forest and became a zombie.

Wait, no, that's not how this story is supposed to go. Let's try again.

Once upon a time, a boy did a horrible job as a sheep-sitter and burned his tongue on stolen pie.

No, children in these stories are always good and virtuous. From the top.

Once upon a time, a king and queen tried to find a princess for their son to marry, and he wound up fleeing from a group of very hairy vampires.

Hmmm . . .

What about, once upon a time, a bunch of fairy tales got twisted around to be completely hilarious, a tiny bit icky, and delightfully spooky scarytales . . . in other words, exactly what fairy tales were meant to be. Grab some flaming torches, maybe don't accept that bowl of pease porridge, and get ready for a wickedly fun ride with acclaimed author Kiersten White and fairy tales like you've never heard them before.

The Trail

By Meika Hashimoto

Toby has to finish the final thing on The List.

It's a list of brave, daring, totally awesome things that he and his best friend Lucas planned to do together, and the only item left is to hike the Appalachian Trail. But now Lucas isn't there to do it with him.

Toby's determined to hike the trail alone and fulfill their pact, which means dealing with little things – the blisters, the heat, the hunger – and the big things – the bears, the loneliness, and the memories. When a storm comes, Toby finds himself tangled up in someone else's mess: two boys desperately need his help. But does Toby have any help to give?

The Trail is a remarkable story of physical survival and true friendship, about a boy who's determined to forge his own path – and to survive.

A mystery-adventure about a girl whose mother has disappeared in China, and the world of invisible animal friends who help her!

Moon Princess

By Barbara Laban

Sienna is unhappy. Her mother has disappeared and she feels alone in Shanghai. Her only friend is Rufus – a sarcastic invisible dog with a VERY clear idea of how things should be done.

When their mean housekeeper starts acting suspiciously, Sienna decides to investigate. She follows a trail of clues that leads her to a new friend, Feng, who also has an invisible animal friend and has lost a family member. Together they embark on a hunt through China that leads them to new friends, even more invisible animals, and a mysterious moonlit temple where Sienna's mother and Feng's brother were last seen.

Are the disappearances linked to a priceless statue of the famous moon princess? And can they discover the dangerous truth?

A Promising Life: Coming of Age with America: A Novel

By Emily Arnold McCully

For as long as he can remember, Jean Baptiste Charbonneau has been told that a promising future lies ahead of him. After all, his mother is the great Sacagawea, who accompanied Lewis and Clark on their expedition of discovery. And thanks to his mother, Baptiste's life changes forever when Captain Clark offers him an education in the bustling new city of St. Louis.

His life becomes a whirl of new experiences: lessons, duels, dances, elections. He makes friends and undertakes unexpected journeys to far-off places.

But he also witnesses the injustices Clark, as a US agent for Indian Affairs, forces upon the Osage, the Arikara, the Mandan, and so many others. He must choose what path he will take and what place he will have in a rapidly changing society.

Emily Arnold McCully won the Caldecott Medal for Mirette on the High Wire, and has illustrated over one hundred books for young readers. Emily divides her time between New York City and Chatham, New York.

Close to the Wind

By Jon Walter

A war-torn country . . . only one way out. Ten-year-old Malik's world is falling apart. Soldiers have invaded town, and his mother is missing, leaving Malik with his grandfather, Papa. Along with a thousand other refugees, their hope for escape to a new life lies in gaining passage aboard one ship – but the demand for tickets is high, and so is the cost. Can they make it on? And will they find Mama before the ship departs? When things don't go as planned, Malik must summon all of his courage and resourcefulness to survive.

A heart-wrenching and suspenseful story of sacrifice and resilience, Close to the Wind confronts the realities of war in a timeless and accessible way.

Jon Walter is a former photojournalist with a special interest in social welfare issues. My Name Is Not Friday was his young adult debut and earned three starred reviews. He lives in East Sussex, England, with his family.

Mama Lion Wins the Race

By Jon J Muth

Start your engines: the race is on! And Mama Lion and Tigey are off – with their cool goggles and snazzy sports car!

Racing teams gather from far and wide for this madcap race. But who will win the trophy cup? Will it be the playful Flying Pandinis? The mischievous Knitted Monkey Crew? Or will Mama Lion and Tigey speed past the finish line in first place?

As Tigey says, winning is winning, but sometimes the journey itself – filled with ineffable moments of mystery, beauty, and joy – is even more fun than getting the prize.

With cars inspired by the early days of Italian motor-racing and characters based on his children's beloved toy animals, Jon J Muth has created a uniquely spellbinding book young readers will return to again and again.

Jack and the Beanstalk and the French Fries

By Mark Teague

FEE FI FO FUM!

When Jack trades the family cow for a handful of magic beans, he gets more beans than he ever expected or wanted. It's bean porridge for breakfast! Bean salad for lunch! Bean chowder for dinner! It doesn't take long before Jack is tired of eating nothing but beans – no matter how nutritious!

But just as he's about to chop down his magic beanstalk, he meets a grumpy giant, who is just as sick and tired of beans as he is. Together, Jack and the giant cook up a plan to plant a vegetable garden full of tomatoes, corn, carrots, and russet potatoes that's bound to satisfy everyone.

A deliciously zany retelling of Jack and the Beanstalk from author Mark Teague that ends with one happy boy, a satisfied giant, and a large plate of french fries.

Mark Teague is an award-winning children's book author and illustrator of several picture books, including The Sky Is Falling! and does the art for the acclaimed How Do Dinosaurs series. Mark lives in the Hudson River Valley with his wife and their two daughters.

This sneaky lesson about the parts of speech is also a delightful story about playground competition and new friends!

Wordplay

By Adam Lehrhaupt

Illustrated by Jared Chapman

When the parts of speech gather on the playground, Verb is always the star. She can climb! She can frolic! She can DO anything! Her friends Adjective, Adverb, and Interjection all watch admiringly. WOW! says Interjection.

Then Noun comes along – and Noun can BE anything. A person! A place! Even a thing! PRETTY! says Interjection. The other parts of speech are fascinated by this new kid, and Verb doesn't like it one bit.

But when a new threat menaces the playground, Noun can't move! There's only one part of speech who can DO something about it . . . and that might allow Noun and Verb to BE something together: friends.

Becoming Maria: Love and Chaos in the South Bronx

By Sonia Manzano

Set in the 1950s in the Bronx, this is the story of a girl with a dream. Emmy award-winning actress and writer Sonia Manzano plunges us into the daily lives of a Latino family that is loving – and troubled.

This is Sonia's own story rendered with an unforgettable narrative power. When readers meet young Sonia, she is a child living amidst the squalor of a boisterous home that is filled with noisy relatives and nosy neighbours. Each day she is glued to the TV screen that blots out the painful realities of her existence and also illuminates the possibilities that lie ahead.

But – click! – when the TV goes off, Sonia is taken back to real-life – the cramped, colourful world of her neighbourhood and an alcoholic father. But it is Sonia's dream of becoming an actress that keeps her afloat among the turbulence of her life and times. Spiced with culture, heartache, and humour, this memoir paints a lasting portrait of a girl's resilience as she grows up to become an inspiration to millions.

Praise for Becoming Maria:

★ “[A] poignantly written memoir about growing up in the South Bronx”
–School Library Journal, starred review

★ “In stark and heartbreaking contrast to her Sesame Street character, Manzano paints a poignant, startlingly honest picture of her youth.” –Kirkus, starred review

“[A] voice that conveys a slow-burning audacity and the internal glimmer of lightness of a true dreamer.” –Publishers Weekly
