BOOK ONE: THE FALSE PRINCE

In a faraway land, civil war is brewing. To unify the kingdom's divided people, a nobleman named Conner devises a cunning plan to find an impersonator of the king's long-lost son and install him on the throne. Four orphans are recruited to compete for the role, including a defiant and clever boy named Sage. Sage knows that Conner's motives are more than questionable, yet his life balances on a sword's point—he must be chosen to play the prince or he will certainly be killed. His rivals will be devising their own plots as well, so Sage must trust no one and keep his thoughts hidden.

As Sage moves from a rundown orphanage to Conner's sumptuous palace, layer upon layer of treachery and deceit unfolds, until finally, a truth is revealed that may very well prove more dangerous than all of the lies together. The False Prince is an extraordinary adventure filled with danger and action, deceptions and deadly truths that will have readers clinging to the edge of their seats.

DISCUSSION POINTS

1. Sage says, "If I had to do it all over again, I would not have chosen this life. Then again, I'm not sure I ever had a choice." Do you agree or disagree with Sage's belief? Has something ever happened to you when you thought you had no choice in the matter?
2. What specific characteristics does Conner see in Sage, Roden, and Tobias that would make each a good candidate to impersonate King Jaron?
3. Conner tells Sage, "Patience is the mark of a ruler." Explain how Sage simultaneously demonstrates and lacks this trait.
4. Sage defies Conner many times and, unlike Latamer, his life is spared. Why do you think Conner chooses to give Sage so many chances?
5. Why does Conner choose orphans to ultimately carry out his plans? How does being an orphan prepare Sage, Tobias, or Roden to become king?
6. Conner claims that he would do anything for his country. Do you find anything noble in his treacherous plans? Is it ever right to kill for something you believe is greater than yourself? If so, when?
7. Why does Conner make the boys compete against each other? Do you think that this competition is a good idea? Have you ever competed against someone? How is competition both a good and a bad thing?
8. Who do you think is Sage's biggest threat in preventing him from becoming Prince Jaron? Why? Who do you think is his greatest ally? Do you think that Sage would have been successful without his ally's help?
9. What qualities do you think a king should possess? Why? Which characters in The False Prince possess these qualities? Give examples from the book to support your answers.
10. The themes of class and social identity run throughout The False Prince. Give two examples of each theme.
11. Conner wants to fool the whole country with his plan. Do you think his plan will work? Why or why not? Give examples of how each of the following characters is fooled by another character or event in the story: Conner, Mott, Cregan, Sage, Tobias, Roden, King Eckbert, and Veldergrath.
12. Sage has many reservations about claiming the throne. Give three examples of them. Do you believe that it is Sage's duty to his family and the people of Carthya to take his place on the throne?
13. Even though Mott likes Sage and disapproves of many of Conner's actions, Mott stays loyal to Conner. Why? Have you ever done something you know is wrong in order to stay on someone's good side?
14. Explain the dynamics between Sage, Tobias, and Roden. How is it possible for them to be both friends and enemies at the same time? Has there ever been someone in your life that you've considered a "frenemy?" Why did you view them in this way? How do you feel now?
15. Princess Amarinda takes a liking to Sage because he spoke the truth when others around her would not. How is this a form of irony?
16. Before knowing his true identity, Conner lets Sage in on his secret: that he hired the pirates to kill Jaron and to poison the royal family. How does the truth help Sage accept his true identity?
17. How are Imogen and Sage alike? How are they different? Do you think they could ever survive as a real couple? Why or why not?
18. Why does Sage feel that he can never truly be free? Do you think that his fears are justified? In what way? Describe a time when your fears stopped you from doing something.
19. Did you realize that Sage was really Prince Jaron before it became clear in the story? If so, when? Why do you think that the author chose to tell the story with this twist?
20. Do you think Sage made the right decision in letting Roden escape? Why or why not? If you were in Sage's place, would you have done the same thing?
21. Was it difficult for Jaron to let go of his royal past to become Sage? Do you think that it will also be difficult for Sage to be Jaron again?
22. How might Jaron's struggles before he was Sage be different from the ones he will face as King Jaron after being Sage?
23. List three ways in which Sage has already sacrificed for Carthya. Describe a time when you made a sacrifice in your own life.
24. Are any of the characters' motives one hundred percent honest? Which ones? Do you think that it is ever okay to tell a lie? Under what circumstances?
25. Do you think that Sage will be a better king than his father? In what ways? Use examples from the book to support your answers.

BOOK TWO: THE RUNAWAY KING

Just weeks after Jaron has taken the throne, an assassination attempt forces him into a deadly situation. Rumors of a coming war are winding their way between the castle walls, and Jaron feels the pressure quietly mounting within Carthya. Soon, it becomes clear that deserting the kingdom once again may be his only hope of saving it. But the farther Jaron is forced to run from his identity, the more he wonders if it is possible to go too far. Will he ever be able to return home again? Or will he have to sacrifice his own life in order to save his kingdom?

DISCUSSION POINTS

1. Why couldn't Jaron attend his family's funeral? Has there ever been a time when you knew you should have been somewhere or done something, but you couldn't bring yourself to do it? How did you feel afterwards?
2. If Roden had known Sage's true identity before trying to kill him in the garden, do you think he still would have attacked him? Why or why not?
3. Even though Jaron is the rightful heir to Carthya's throne, many people do not want Jaron to be king. Why? Do you think that their concerns are merited? Why or why not? Have you ever been in a position where you believed you could do something that others thought you could not do? How did it make you feel?
4. Many of Jaron's actions have resulted in hurting the people that he cares for the most. He tells Mott, "My crimes may have saved me, but I never meant them to harm you." List two instances in which Jaron's actions hurt others. Have you ever unintentionally caused pain to someone you cared about? How did it make you feel?
5. Jaron risks his identity and life to rescue Nila and to bring her to Libeth. Why is Harlowe so nice to Jaron? How does Jaron repay him?
6. In Libeth Jaron learns that his father had turned a blind eye to Avenians pillaging and murdering farmers in Carthya in order to keep peace. What does this say about King Eckbert and his reign? What did King Eckbert value more—freedom or peace? Which do you think Jaron values more? Why?
7. It seems as though Jaron is always being tested. Name three of Jaron's "tests." Have you ever felt tested by family, friends, or school pressure? Explain how you overcame it, and how you felt afterwards.
8. Once again, Jaron has to become Sage in order to survive. How are Jaron and Sage different? What characteristics of their personalities are the same? If you could have a secret identity, what would it be?
9. Why does Jaron talk Erick and his thieves into breaking into Harlowe's house? When Harlowe and Mott burst in on Jaron and Erick, why don't they stop Jaron? Have you ever had to turn a blind eye to someone who was doing something you knew was wrong? What happened?
10. In what ways does Imogen both help and hinder Jaron's plans?
11. The pirate code is very brutal, yet all of the pirates are loyal to whoever is in charge as long as he is just. Is Devlin a good pirate king? Do you think it would have been easier for Jaron to be the pirate king instead of the King of Carthya? Why or why not?
12. Why does Jaron want the watch that he helped Erick steal from Harlowe? What does the watch symbolize to Jaron?

13. After Devlin brands Jaron a pirate, he says, “You belong to the pirates now.” Who or what else has Jaron belonged to? Why can Jaron never be free?
14. Many characters are betrayed in The Runaway King. List three examples of betrayal in the book. Have you ever been betrayed? How did it make you feel?
15. List three characteristics that Fink and Jaron share. Do you think Jaron would have survived without Fink’s help?
16. Devlin has held a grudge against Jaron since the prince escaped his attempted kidnapping. If that had never happened, do you think that both kings could have ruled in harmony?
17. How did Jaron’s time as Sage prepare him for his stay at Tarblade Bay? What skills did he acquire that help him to survive? Have you ever learned something helpful from a bad experience?
18. After Roden leaves Carthya at the end of The False Prince, why do you think he wants to become a pirate? Do you think he would make a good pirate king? Explain why.
19. How does Jaron and Imogen’s relationship mirror King Eckbert and Queen Erin’s relationship? Knowing how King Eckbert ruled and how the royal family and Carthya suffered, do you think that Jaron and Imogen should pursue a relationship?
20. Great leaders often surround themselves with great people. How do Kerwin, Mott, and Tobias each contribute to Jaron’s success?
21. Princess Amarinda discovers that Gregor was deceiving Jaron and Carthya. How do her actions help Jaron? How are Amarinda and Jaron alike?
22. Jaron calls Roden “a dangerous enemy but a fierce friend.” Do you agree with this? Why does Jaron insist on winning back Roden’s friendship as well as trusting him as the captain of the guard? If you were Jaron, would you forgive Roden? Why or why not?

24. In what ways is Harlowe more like a real father to Jaron than King Eckbert ever was? What makes Harlowe a good choice for Jaron’s Prime Regent?
25. Is it wise for Jaron to let Imogen stay at Libeth? What are his alternatives? Do you think the Avenians would be able to start a war against Carytha so soon without Imogen?
