MY SURVIVAL: A GIRL ON SCHINDLER'S LIST

BY RENA FINDER WITH JOSHUA M. GREENE

In her own words, hear how Rena Finder was only 11 when the Nazis forced her and her family – along with all the other Jewish families – into the ghetto in Krakow, Poland. Rena worked as a slave laborer with scarcely any food and watched as friends and family were sent away. Then she and her mother ended up working for Oskar Schindler, a German businessman who employed Jewish prisoners in his factory and kept them fed and healthy. But her nightmares were not over. She and her mother were deported to the concentration camp Auschwitz. With great cunning, it was Schindler who set out to help them escape.

BUMBLE AND BEE: DON'T WORRY, BEE HAPPY

BY ROSS BURACH

Bumble and Bee love to buzz around the pond and make mischief. Their cranky best friend Froggy prefers the peace and quiet of sitting on a lily pad. They may be an unlikely trio, but no matter what these friends dream up – from picture day problem-solving to a comical cure for the hiccups – you can count on hilarious, unexpected FUN!

TRUTH OR LIE: SHARKS!

BY ERICA S. PERL AND ILLUSTRATED BY MICHAEL SLACK

Baby sharks are toothless at first, right? That's a LIE! The TRUTH is, sharks are born with a mouthful of teeth to protect themselves and hunt right away. In a unique question-and-answer format, readers are quizzed about their favorite ocean predators to see if they can separate facts from "lies." The book's mascot – the Truth Sleuth – guides readers through this funny and fact-packed title, filled with photos of sharks in action, as well as kid-appealing art and humor.

A GOOD KIND OF TROUBLE

LISA MOORE RAMÉE

Shayla is allergic to trouble. All she wants to do is follow the rules. But in junior high, it's like all the rules have changed. Now she's suddenly questioning who her best friends are, and some people at school are saying she's not black enough. Shay's sister, Hana, is involved in Black Lives Matter, but Shay doesn't think that's for her. After experiencing a powerful protest, though, Shay decides some rules are worth breaking. She decides to take a side. Soon everyone is taking sides. And she is given an ultimatum.

LILA AND HADLEY

BY KODY KEPLINGER

Hadley is angry about a lot of things: Her mom going to jail. Having to move to another state to live with her older sister, Beth, even though they haven't spoken in five years. Leaving her friends and her school behind. And going blind. But then Hadley meets and bonds with Lila, a sad abandoned dog from the local dog rescue where Beth works. Beth thinks maybe Hadley can help Lila, so they bring her home to train and foster her. If Hadley could just let go of her anger, she might be able to save Lila ... and herself.

THE PLOT TO KILL HITLER #1: CONSPIRACY

BY ANDY MARINO

Berlin, November 1943. With bombing raids commencing, the city is blanketed by explosions. Siblings Gerta and Max Hoffmann live a surprisingly carefree childhood amid the raids. But one night, the air raid sirens wail, and the Hoffmanns' neighborhood is hit. A mortally wounded man comes to their door, begging to be let in. He asks for Karl Hoffmann, their father. Gerta and Max watch as Karl tries in vain to save the man's life. Before he dies, the stranger gives their father a bloodstained packet of documents, along with a message: "For the sake of humanity, the Führer must die. Finish it, Karl!" Based on real events, this is the story of two children swept up in a fight for the soul of Germany – and the world.
