MONDAY LUNCHTIME

DING, DING, DING!

Phew! I was so happy to hear the lunch bell ring. Mr. Brickhouse had been going on and on and ON in our History lesson and I was SO BORED. We were learning about ancient civilizations and how they used the invention of the block to create world landmarks. I was sure Mr. Brickhouse was going to call my name to answer a question, which would have been a disaster because I hadn't been listening.

Talk about being saved by the lunch bell!

I walked out of History class and headed to my locker. I dumped my books inside and pulled out my lunch bag. But as I turned to leave, I SMACKED right into somebody. The crash was so hard I went flying backward and landed straight onto my butt. I even slid down the corridor a little and made a squeaky stopping sound.

DOF!

"Watch it, BLOCKHEAD!" an angry voice sneered.

I didn't even have to look up to see who it was. Trip. The school bully who also happened to be the mayor's son.
