

A note from the series editor:

If you could have any superpower, what would you choose?

And what if the superpower chose you? And it wasn't one you wanted at all? In fact, what if the superpower came from the thing you least wanted to draw attention to?

That's what happens to four ordinary kids from sleepy Dimly, Manitoba. Nothing really unusual happens until they're thirteen, but then their lives suddenly become anything but ordinary. We've got talking super-mice, a rundown blimp, government conspiracy, tons of garlic, and invisible (and visible) bad guys.

Meanwhile, each of our heroes is just trying to figure out what their new superpower is, let alone how to control it. And then they need to use it TO SAVE THE WORLD!

That's The Almost Epic Squad: four amazing characters, four outstanding books, four epic writers. So get ready for edge-of-your-seat adventure, roll-on-the-floor hilarity and new friends you won't want to let go.

Oh, and one more thing: you can read these books in any order – just don't be surprised when a character you know from one story pops up in another one. They keep doing that.

Ready? Get reading!
