Dog Man 15

Dog Man: A Sprinkle in Time: A Graphic Novel (Dog Man #15): From the Creator of Captain Underpants

By (author) Dav Pilkey , Illustrated by Dav Pilkey

Nov 03, 2026 | Hardcover $21.99

An all-new adventure from the #1 global bestselling Dog Man phenomenon coming November 3, 2026!

In the newest saga, our anti-hero, Grandpa, alters the fabric of time and space. Is his evil the necessary soil for Dog Man and friends to grow and bloom? Can we all step up to be the change? It's the saga of the century -- Dog Man: A Sprinkle in Time!

Contributor Bio

When Dav Pilkey was a kid, he was diagnosed with ADHD and dyslexia. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hallway every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories. He spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books -- the very first adventures of Dog Man and Captain Underpants. In the second grade, Dav's teacher ripped up his comics and told him he couldn't spend the rest of his life making silly books. Fortunately, Dav was not a very good listener.

Baby-sitters on Board!: A Graphic Novel (The Baby-sitters Club Super Special #1)

Adapted by Raina Telgemeier , Illustrated by Raina Telgemeier , Adapted by Gale Galligan , Illustrated by Gale Galligan , By (author) Ann M. Martin

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $23.99

New York Times bestselling authors Raina Telgemeier and Gale Galligan team up and return to The Baby-sitters Club -- both Raina and Gale adapt and illustrate this super special graphic novel!

Kristy, Claudia, Mary Anne, Stacey, Dawn, Mallory, and Jessi are the luckiest baby-sitters in the world. This summer, they're going on what is sure to be the best vacation ever: a plane ride to Florida, a cruise to the Bahamas on an extravagant ship, and then back to Florida for three days of fun at a huge amusement park!

The BSC has a million adventures, of course. And they still have time for what they like best of all -- baby-sitting!

The Hunger Games

Sunrise on the Reaping (A Hunger Games Novel): Movie Tie-In Edition

By (author) Suzanne Collins

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $24.99

The unforgettable fifth book in the Hunger Games series: Haymitch's story. Feature film scheduled for November 2026.

#1 USA Today Bestseller • #1 New York Times Bestseller • #1 Indie Bestseller • #1 Publishers Weekly Bestseller • A New York Times Editors' Choice

"A propulsive, brutal Hunger Games prequel is here. And it's great." The New York Times

When you've been set up to lose everything you love, what is there left to fight for?

As the day dawns on the fiftieth annual Hunger Games, fear grips the districts of Panem. This year, in honor of the Quarter Quell, twice as many tributes will be taken from their homes.

Back in District 12, Haymitch Abernathy is trying not to think too hard about his chances. All he cares about is making it through the day and being with the girl he loves.

Contributor Bio

Suzanne Collins is the internationally bestselling author of the Hunger Games series, which also includes the novels The Hunger Games, Catching Fire, Mockingjay, and The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes. Together, the books have sold over 100 million copies and were the basis for five popular films. Her other books include the acclaimed Underland Chronicles series, which begins with Gregor the Overlander, and the picture book Year of the Jungle, illustrated by James Proimos. To date, her books have been published in fifty-three languages around the world.

The Hunger Games 3

Mockingjay: Illustrated Edition (The Hunger Games #3)

By (author) Suzanne Collins , Illustrated by Nico Delort

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $49.99

With stunning illustrations by Nico Delort, this keepsake edition is a definitive final volume for all Hunger Games fans.

"My name is Katniss Everdeen. Why am I not dead? I should be dead."

Katniss Everdeen, girl on fire, has survived, even though her home has been destroyed. There are rebels. There are new leaders. A revolution is unfolding.

District 13 has come out of the shadows and is plotting to overthrow the Capitol. Though she's long been a part of the revolution, Katniss hasn't known it. Now it seems that everyone has had a hand in the carefully laid plans but her.

The success of the rebellion hinges on Katniss's willingness to be a pawn, to accept responsibility for countless lives, and to change the course of the future of Panem. To do this, she must put aside her feelings of anger and distrust. She must become the rebels' Mockingjay - no matter what the cost.

The Hunger Games

Hunger Games 5-Book Paperback Box Set (The Hunger Games, Catching Fire, Mockingjay, The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes, Sunrise on the Reaping)

By (author) Suzanne Collins

Sep 01, 2026 | Mixed media product $107.95

This beautiful paperback box set featuring the classic covers includes all three books in Suzanne Collins's internationally bestselling Hunger Games trilogy together with The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes and Sunrise on the Reaping.

In the ruins of a place once known as North America lies the nation of Panem, a shining Capitol surrounded by twelve outlying districts. The Capitol keeps the districts in line by forcing them all to send one boy and one girl between the ages of twelve and eighteen to participate in the annual Hunger Games, a fight to the death on live TV... And the odds are against all who play.

With all five of Suzanne Collins's Hunger Games novels in one paperback box set, you can step into the world of Panem with the 10th annual Hunger Games, experience the stories of Coriolanus Snow and Haymitch Abernathy, and continue all the way to the electrifying conclusion.

I spy a proton, a propeller, a B.
An egg basket, and an egg to make tea.

A slinky, three thimbles, the number 10,
A bear's a spoon, and twelve spoons.

I spy a rabbit, a bouncy ball,
A sword, a horse, an umbrella that's small.

A dollar sign, a dove in flight,
Two colored dice, and a pig that's white.

Millie Fleur's Worst Day Ever (Unabridged edition)

Unabridged edition

By (author) Christy Mandin , Illustrated by Christy Mandin

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

Wednesday Addams meets Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day in the latest book in the New York Times bestselling Millie Fleur series!

Garden Glen was buzzing with excitement. It was time for the town's annual Butterbloom Fest! Everyone was ready for the most perfect day of the year.

Everyone except Millie Fleur La Fae. Instead of waking up bright-eyed and ready to take in everything the fair has to offer, Millie Fleur wakes up with a bad case of the morgenmuffels. Even worse, there's a humbug tangled in her hair!

Millie Fleur's day goes downhill from there. Even as she tries to make the best of things, her problems grow bigger and bigger. Will a little help from her friends be enough to turn this bad day around?

Millie Fleur's Worst Day Ever reminds us all about the importance of relying on our friends when we're feeling blue. A gorgeous companion to the New York Times bestseller Millie Fleur's Poison Garden.

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house

Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse...

A lavish, brilliant, and beautifully illustrated retelling of the classic Christmas poem, brought to life as never before by beloved master watercolorist Jon J Muth. In this wholly original retelling, Muth brings each sweeping scene and charming character to festive life in this joy-fueled and heartwarming retelling. His award-winning watercolor illustrations brim with love and light, illuminating the spirit and joy that will ignite and delight young readers and families eager to celebrate the Christmas season.

From twinkling twilight scenes of Santa's journey through the night with his nine soaring reindeer, to Santa's heroic rooftop landing and miraculous trip down the chimney, and even a scene with Pa and Santa dancing together before Santa continues on his way, this is Clement C. Moore's read-aloud classic as never before. Curious readers will also love searching for the mischievous mice secretly

Contributor Bio

"The Night Before Christmas" was written by Clement Clarke Moore in 1823, under the original title "A Visit From St. Nicholas."

Jon J Muth is beloved all over the world for his seven books featuring Stillwater the Panda, whose love and balanced approach to life always serve to make the world a better place for his young friends. Muth's many enchanting picture books include his Caldecott Honor Book Zen Shorts, Addy's Cup of Sugar, Stone Soup, and The Three Questions, which the New York Times Book Review called "quietly life-changing." His books have been translated into more than 23 languages and are cherished by readers of all ages. Muth draws inspiration from his life-long interest in Asian Studies, including tai chi chuan, sumi ink drawing, and chado, "the way of tea."

Muth is also renowned in the world of graphic novels. He won an Eisner Award for his paintings in the graphic novel, The Mystery Play by Grant Morrison. He's partnered with Neil Gaiman on The Sandman: The Wake, Walter and Louise Simonson, and Kent Williams on Havoc & Wolverine: Meltdown, J. M. DeMatteis on Moonshadow and Silver Surfer, and with Stanislaw Lem on The Seventh

Praise for Stillwater and Koo Save the World: A Junior Library Guild Gold Standard Selection "Powerful words indeed, and mission accomplished! This beautifully told story makes clear that, with patient guidance, praise, and role modeling from loving grown-ups, children can learn to be kind and caring and to "save the world" in small, doable ways... A stunning, tender testament to the idea that small acts of kindness, one by one, make a huge impact." -- Kirkus Reviews, starred review* "The illustrations, done in delicate watercolors and pencil, lend both beauty and comic detail to the story. The resolution 'each time you do something good, you save the world a little bit,' is inspiring." -- Booklist, starred review

* "[Muth's] watercolors provide an intriguing, intimate-feeling peek into the pandas' household goings-on, while abundant white space and a generous trim size contribute to an atmosphere of tranquility and joy."

Rumor Has It (The Luckies #1)

By (author) Sarah Mlynowski 🍁, By (author) Christina Soontornvat,
Illustrated by Madi Wong

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $13.99

Welcome to your NEXT great read! NEXT is an exciting new line of books that feature short, irresistible stories that include both full-color and black-and-white art that's sure to keep you hooked. Once you've read one, you'll need to know what happens...NEXT! Mega-bestselling, award-winning authors Sarah Mlynowski and Christina Soontornvat are kicking off the fun with The Luckies #1: Rumor Has It, which follows two stepsisters who don't get along at all...

From strangers to sisters...

Annie couldn't be more excited. She's moving to an adorable small town where she'll find the perfect friend group and maybe even her first boyfriend. Her new house has a pool, and she's getting a stepsister her age named Leela...

Leela is NOT happy. She's leaving the bright lights of New York City to live in the middle of nowhere with an annoying stepsister AND two stepbrothers. Plus, kids at her new school seem gossipy and toxic. Leela wants out.

When a blended family brings together two very different girls--each with their own secrets, crushes, and schemes--drama ensues. Will Annie and Leela find a way to get along, or is their luck about to run out?

Avery's Story (Rival High #1)

By (author) Candace Buford , Illustrated by Jamie Green

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $13.99

Welcome to your NEXT great read! NEXT is an exciting new line of books that feature short, irresistible stories that include both full-color and black-and-white art that's sure to keep you hooked. Once you've read one, you'll need to know what happens ... NEXT! When two high schools merge, four friends help each other navigate the ensuing drama in this brand-new series by Candace Buford with art by Jamie Green.

Avery Jones is ready for a fresh start, and what better time than the first day at a new school? That's where she meets Madison (the influencer), Teresa (the genius), and Corinne (the athlete). Each one is so unique and cool, all Avery wants to do is impress them.

So when she sees an opportunity to twist the truth a little, she takes it. After all, a little white lie never hurt anyone ... right?

But when Avery's new school merges with her old school, she finds herself in way over her head juggling two lives -- and her new friends are starting to get suspicious. Will Avery be able to fix things before her friends figure out the truth?

Candace Buford has been an avid reader since childhood -- always looking for stories with strong and complex POCs. She graduated from Duke University with a degree in German Literature, which exposed her to the delightfully creepy side of storytelling by writers like Kafka and Brecht. She also holds a law degree from Penn State Law School and a business degree from Duke's Fuqua School of Business. Raised in Houston, Candace currently lives in the heart of Seattle, where you can find her huddled in café corners, scribbling away in her notebook. She shares her life with a rocket scientist and a Plott Hound, who both ensure there is never a dull day. Follow her on Twitter and Instagram @candacebuford.

Jamie Green is a creator based in Cleveland, Ohio. She has illustrated several books including the Arden High series by Molly Horton Booth and Stephanie Kate Strohm, and A Line Can Go Anywhere by Caroline McAlister. When she isn't

Front Desk: A Graphic Novel

By (author) Kelly Yang , Illustrated by Fumio Obata

Oct 20, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $20.99

The graphic novel adaptation of Kelly Yang's New York Times bestselling book Front Desk! This beautifully illustrated modern classic highlighting Mia Tang's ever-relevant immigrant story is a must-have for every bookshelf and classroom.

Mia Tang has a lot of secrets.

Number 1: She lives in a motel, not a big house. Every day, while her immigrant parents clean the rooms, ten-year-old Mia manages the front desk of the Calivista Motel and tends to its guests.

Number 2: Her parents hide immigrants. And if the mean motel owner, Mr. Yao, finds out they've been letting them stay in the empty rooms for free, the Tangs will be doomed.

Number 3: She wants to be a writer. But how can she when her mom thinks she should stick to math because English is not her first language?

It will take all of Mia's courage, kindness, and hard work to get through this year. Will she be able to hold on to her job, help the immigrants and guests, escape Mr. Yao, and go for her dreams?

Contributor Bio

Kelly Yang is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of several books for young readers, including Three Keys, Room to Dream, Key Player, and the 2019 Asian/Pacific American Award for Literature winner Front Desk, which was also chosen as a Best Book of the Year by multiple publications, including NPR, The Washington Post, and the New York Public Library. Kelly's family immigrated to the United States from China when she was a young girl, and she grew up in California, in circumstances very similar to those of Mia Tang. After attending college at the age of 13, she graduated UC Berkeley and Harvard Law School. She is the founder of The Kelly Yang Project, a leading writing and debating program for children in Asia and the United States. Her writing has been published in South China Morning Post, The New York Times, The Washington Post, and The Atlantic. FRONT DESK

THE GRAPHIC NOVEL KELLY YANG

Dear Reader,

It's been eight years since Front Desk first came out, and in so many ways, it feels like no time has passed. The story of Mia Tang, this young immigrant girl, living in a motel, trying to use her voice (while still learning English), trying to cling to hope and see the good in the world and the humanity in everyone around her, even when life is hard, especially when life is hard, is more relevant than ever, because it's not just my story, it's our story.

It's also the story of eleven-year-old Alina, who told me she kept going because of Front Desk, even when she didn't win the writing competitions she entered, and now she's starting a student newspaper. It's the story of ten-year-old Macy, who told me she cried when she first learned she and her family were moving to a motel, but after reading Front Desk, she now feels proud! It is the story of Eshna, a sophomore in college, who wrote me at 4:30 a.m. because she stayed up all night finishing the book, to tell me that Mia has reminded her how to take action and work hard at achieving her goals, and more importantly, help others in her community. It is the story of countless teachers and librarians, who work tirelessly every day, in increasingly difficult circumstances, because they care. Because they see the potential in every kid.

It has been the greatest honor of my life writing for you, reading your emails, hearing from you, meeting you on tour, and getting to know what an impact Front Desk has made on your life. I'm exceedingly proud that we have found each other—that's the power of reading! We've formed a community of young dreamers and doers and readers. Because of you, I am SO excited to be able to give you Front Desk: The Graphic Novel! This book has been many years in the making. I'm completely blown away by Fumio Obata's artwork in bringing Mia, Jason, Lupe, Mom, Dad, Hank, and yes, even Mr. Yao, to life! I hope you love it as much as I loved every second of this fast-paced, laugh-out-loud, action-packed, and deeply emotional graphic novel. I hope it will bring Front Desk to a whole new group of readers and inspire them to dream big, too! Thank you so much for reading my books, and welcome back to the Calivista!

With all my love,
Kelly

Nat Enough 7

Nat Again: A Graphic Novel (Nat Enough #7)

By (author) Maria Scriveran , Illustrated by Maria Scriveran

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $20.99

The seventh book in the New York Times bestselling series that began with Nat Enough, and the perfect "read-alike" for fans of Diary of a Wimpy Kid!

The most popular girl in school is throwing the biggest party of the year, and everyone is invited but Nat. Gasp! As Nat wonders why, she becomes tangled in her own "thought traps" -- the false stories she's created in her mind. Did she say something hurtful or do something wrong? Maybe she's just too uncool to be included? Before jumping to conclusions, can Nat get out of her own head long enough to find the truth?

Praise for Nat Enough:

Named one of "the year's best [graphic novel] books" by The Washington Post

"Maria writes funny, Maria draws funny, and Maria does it with a ton of heart." -- Jim Davis, creator of Garfield

"What elevates Maria Scriveran's graphic novel is the refreshing honesty with which it approaches its subject matter. The tone is instructive but not preachy, as Natalie develops her talents as a cartoonist and discovers her individuality, which brings her not only the acceptance of others but, more importantly, self-acceptance." -- Financial Times

Mixed Feelings 2

Mixed Signals: A Graphic Novel (Mixed Feelings #2)

By (author) Sara Amini , Illustrated by Shadia Amin

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $20.99

In this funny, feel-good follow-up to Mixed Feelings, Sara struggles to find her place because she's constantly caught between TWO spaces: childhood and adulthood, drama club and volleyball, friends and a crush. Perfect for fans of The Tryout, The New Girl: First Crush, and Pizza Face.

Middle school is a balancing act!

Seventh grade couldn't be off to a better start: Sara's joined drama club and made the volleyball team, she has great friends and a growing crush, and now that she's thirteen -- officially a teenager! -- she has increased responsibilities at home.

But Sara starts to struggle... Because of her volleyball schedule, she's not cast in the play. And due to her commitment to drama club, she's benched during the big game. To make matters worse, her crush, Hector, only seems to talk to her when he needs help in math class (and her friends are noticing the pattern). And to top it off, her parents pick and choose when to treat her like a kid or a grown-up.

Sara's finding herself caught in a strange in-between space. Is she an actress or an athlete? A crush or a calculator? An adolescent or an adult? With so many mixed signals, will Sara ever be able to find her place?

Stay Out of the Basement (Goosebumps Graphic Novel #3)

By (author) R. L. Stine , Illustrated by Maddi Gonzalez

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $18.99

A thrilling Goosebumps horror classic about creepy basement experiments is now available as a page-turning graphic novel.

Do not enter ... or else!

The basement is strictly off limits to Margaret and Casey Brewer. Their scientist dad is running a secret experiment with plants and doesn't want them upsetting the delicate ecosystem he's created. But Margaret and Casey decide a quick peek won't hurt anyone. Their dad has been behaving very strangely and they have to know what's going on down there. The truth they find is way stranger than fiction — these plants just might have minds of their own!

My Name Is Benny Vol. 2

By (author) Sokomin , Illustrated by Sokomin

Oct 20, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $20.99

Mischief, mayhem, and humorous hijinks abound in this comic story from WEBTOON, the #1 digital comic platform! Perfect for fans of Regular Show and Teen Titans Go!

Benny is back and ready for even more mischief and mayhem! Told through a series of short comic stories, My Name is Benny combines the outlandish humor of Regular Show with the wacky characters of Teen Titans Go! Follow Benny and her band of friends/misfits as they experience everything from being awful at video games to traveling to an alternate reality where everyone is bald -- and a whole lot more!

But even as Benny's crew finds increasingly bizarre ways to stave off boredom, reality marches on. College, jobs, and the struggle to keep in touch with long distance friends all loom, though you can be sure that Benny will hold everything together -- even if it means annoying some folks along the way!

This slice-of-life graphic novel straight from Webtoon will keep readers laughing, sometimes crying, but always turning the pages.

Sokomin is an artist who draws inspiration from simple, silly, everyday moments with friends and family. Born in South Korea, Sokomin moved to America at a young age, and her journey as an artist began with creating four-panel comics of stick figures for her little brother, her only reader at the time. She keeps a folder of notes for every idea that comes to her (which happens mostly when she's falling asleep). 20% of these have made it into comics. She's not lazy; she's just waiting for them to mature (she likes to call it "fermenting").

Splinter's Dojo (Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles Illustrated Novel #1)

By (author) Dan & Jason
 Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $18.99

Cowabunga, dudes and dudettes! This hilarious original novel is filled with comics, mischief, and action starring The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles! Splinter's Dojo takes the turtles to class at the most radical middle school around.

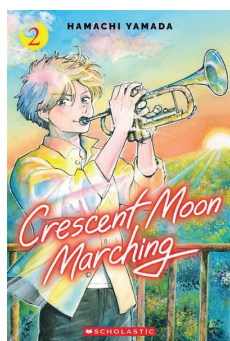

When the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles -- Leonardo, Michelangelo, Raphael, and Donatello -- cause a city-wide blackout, their Master Splinter is at his wits' end. These out-of-control turtles need structure, routine, discipline... somewhere that will hold them accountable. Where could that be? Middle school, of course! And what better place for a school for mutants than the sewers of New York, with a faculty and student body full of fan favorites from the world of TMNT? Can these Turtles get their act together and become true ninjas? And just what are Bebop and Rocksteady -- henchmen of the Turtles' archenemy Shredder -- doing in class with the rest of their peers?

Told through a mix of comics panels, artifacts, and text, this highly illustrated novel from the author/illustrator team of Barb the Last Berzerker is sure to be a totally tubular hit with middle grade readers.

Mecha-Ude: Mechanical Arms (Volume 4)

By (author) Yoshino Koyoka

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $18.99

It's time for the final showdown! An ordinary middle-school student's life takes a thrilling turn when he encounters a powerful mechanical being in this exciting manga series for fans of My Hero Academia and Spy x Family.

The situation in Kita-Kagami City has gone from bad to worse. Rogue Mecha-Ude are increasing in power and will stop at nothing for world domination. Hikaru and Alma have been badly hurt, and the ARMS scientists aren't sure they can save them. Even the Kagami organization has been made vulnerable by deep betrayals. As evacuation alarms go off, and with the fate of the city and perhaps all of humanity at stake, it's time to put aside differences... and just maybe save the world.

Five Nights at Freddy's: Tales from the Pizzaplex Graphic Novel Collection Vol. 3

By (author) Scott Cawthon , By (author) Kelly Parra ,
By (author) Andrea Waggener , Adapted by Christopher Hastings ,
Illustrated by Mike Anderson , Illustrated by Coryn Macpherson ,
Illustrated by Anthony Morris

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $23.99

The bestselling series of YA novels is now a graphic novel series! Five Nights at Freddy's fans won't want to miss this pulse-pounding collection of three novella-length comic stories that will keep even the bravest player up at night.

What's the price for keeping a secret? ... Astrid doesn't tell anyone about the strange things her Buddytronic doll has been up to... Quietly outsourcing their storytelling to artificial intelligence comes with unintended results for the executives of the Fazbear Entertainment board of directors. ... and Kara convinces a Pizzaplex employee no one will know if he lets her spend a little more time in the VR attraction.

In this volume, three stories from the Publishers Weekly bestselling series Five Nights at Freddy's: Tales from the Pizzaplex come to life in delightfully horrifying comics. Readers beware: This collection of terrifying tales is enough to unsettle even the most hardened Five Nights at Freddy's fan...

Contributor Bio

Scott Cawthon is the author of the bestselling video game series Five Nights at Freddy's, and while he is a game designer by trade, he is first and foremost a storyteller at heart. He is a graduate of The Art Institute of Houston and lives in Texas with his family. Kelly Parra is the author of the YA novels Graffiti Girl, Invisible Touch, and other supernatural short stories. In addition to her independent works, Kelly works with Kevin Anderson & Associates on a variety of projects. She resides in Central Coast, California, with her husband and two children. Andrea Rains Waggener is an author, novelist, ghostwriter, essayist, short story writer, screenwriter, copywriter, editor, poet, and a proud member of Kevin Anderson & Associates' team of writers. In a past she prefers not to remember much, she was a claims adjuster, JCPenney catalog order-taker (before computers!), appellate court clerk, legal writing instructor, and lawyer. Writing in genres that vary from her chick-lit novel, Alternate Beauty, to her dog how-to book, Dog Parenting, to her self-help book, Healthy, Wealthy, & Wise, to ghostwritten memoirs to ghostwritten YA, horror, mystery, and mainstream fiction projects, Andrea still manages to find time to watch the rain and obsess over her dog and her knitting, art, and music projects. She lives with her husband and said dog on the Washington Coast, and if she isn't at home creating something, she can be found walking on the beach. Christopher Hastings is a comics writer best known

Reviews

A New York Times bestselling series!

Praise for Eva's Treetop Festival (Owl Diaries #1):

"Bright and colorful digital illustrations, large type, frequent speech bubbles and a familiar story make this accessible to emerging readers... This series promises to fill a niche for [new readers]. Keep flapping, Eva!" -- Kirkus Reviews

"Appealing visuals (the text and art are set against the lined pages of Eva's diary), punny dialogue, a few pratfalls, and Eva's unflagging enthusiasm make for lively reading." -- Publishers Weekly

"The colorful, adorable illustrations will be irresistible to young readers. The simple text interspersed with speech bubble dialogue will engage beginning and intermediate readers alike. This appealing chapter book will be a nice addition to a library's young reader collection." -- Children's Media Connection

Cara the Shimmer Wings Capybara (Capybara Kingdom #1)

By (author) Emma Young

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $9.99

The first book in the new Capybara Kingdom series with magic, mischief and so much fun!

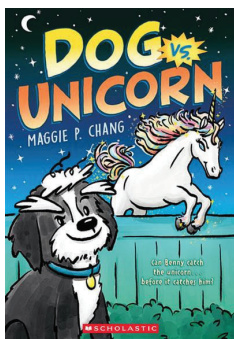

Cara the Capybara can't help but get herself into trouble... Whether it's splashing about and disturbing her sister's peace, or stealing a slice of the cake, mischief seems to follow her everywhere. So when Cara is helping Dad collect some vegetables for dinner, it's no surprise when she wanders off and disappears down a magical hole. When she wakes up, Cara discovers she's landed in Capybara Kingdom. And it's AMAZING. There's upside-down forests and magic all around. And, Cara has ... WINGS!

There's so much to explore and so many new creatures to meet in the Kingdom. When she meets capybara Ava, in the popular Cafebara in town, she learns her birthday party is turning out to be a disaster. Can Cara use her newfound wings to help save the day and give Ava the Capybirthday of her dreams without causing her usual chaos?

Dog vs. Unicorn (Dog vs. #1)

By (author) Maggie Chang , Illustrated by Maggie Chang

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $10.99

How to Catch a Unicorn meets Bunnicula in this hilarious new series about a reformed bad dog trying to protect his neighborhood from fantastical creatures!

My name is Benny and I'm the best dog ever.

Well, sort of. My humans like to call me "Bad Dog Benny!"

They called me "BAD DOG BENNY!" last week when I challenged a skunk to a fight. They called me "BAD DOG BENNY!" yesterday when I got so excited that I peed on the floor. And today, they called me "BAD DOG BENNY!" when I got covered in glitter.

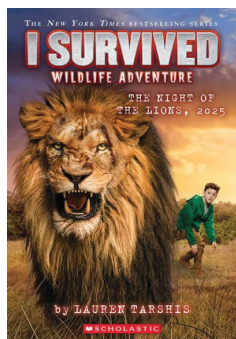

But listen, the humans don't know the whole story. The totally not made up, actually happened to me story. The story about how I tried to capture a real, live unicorn.

I Survived 26

I Survived the Night of the Lions, 2025 (I Survived #26)

By (author) Lauren Tarshis

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $10.99

Lauren Tarshis's 26th I Survived book transports readers deep into one of the most breathtaking — and dangerous — places on Earth: Botswana's Okavango Delta. This remote wilderness bursts with life, sheltering more lions, elephants, and dazzling (and deadly) creatures than almost anywhere else on the planet.

Eleven-year-old Dylan is still reeling from the injury that shattered his all-star Little League dreams back home in Boston. His film-maker older sister offers him the trip of a lifetime: to travel with her as she films a world-famous lion expert in the heart of southern Africa.

Dylan's days in the wilds of Botswana are filled with awe and wonder — elephants splashing in lagoons, leopards growling under star-lit skies, herds of zebras racing through golden grasslands, glittering snakes basking on tree branches — until disaster strikes.

A plane crash hurls Dylan into the unforgiving wilderness, where deadly creatures are on the prowl. Alone, injured, and terrified, Dylan must summon every ounce of strength and as he faces the deadliest predator of all: the African lion.

Contributor Bio

Reviews

Praise for I Survived Hurricane Katrina, 2005:

"Expressive illustrations capture the drama of the storm and its aftermath, but the book's real power comes from its exploration of what it means to be a hero." -- Booklist

Praise for I Survived the American Revolution, 1776:

"Tarshis successfully blends historical fact with an involving narrative." -- School Library Journal

Praise for I Survived the Destruction of Pompeii, AD 79:

"Tarshis serves up another gripping adventure... with the light-speed pacing and death-defying maneuvering fans have come to expect." -- Booklist

Praise for I Survived the Battle of Gettysburg, 1863:

"Informative and breathlessly paced." -- Kirkus Reviews

Praise for I Survived the Attacks of September 11, 2001:

"[Tarshis] crafts a dramatic, emotional, historical tale."

Magic Gems 4

Rescue on the Mountain (Magic Gems #4)

By (author) Payal Doshi

Oct 20, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $10.99

Dragon Girls meets Love Puppies in this new chapter book series starring a group of friends who protect animals with magical gemstones!

Friendship is power. No one knows that more than the Gems, a magical community of kids who get their powers from sparkling gemstones. Scarlett is a Fire Gem who helps care for animals that live in the hills around her home. When a young fawn needs Scarlett's help, she and her friends leap into action.

Contributor Bio

Payal Doshi has a Master's in Creative Writing (Fiction) from The New School, New York. Having lived in the UK and the US, she noticed a lack of Indian protagonists in global children's fiction and one day wrote the opening paragraph to what would become her first children's novel. She was born and raised in Mumbai, India, and currently resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota, with her husband and four-year-old daughter. When she isn't writing or spending time with her family, you can find her nose deep in a book with a cup of coffee or daydreaming of fantasy realms to send her characters off into. She loves the smell of old, yellowed books. Her debut middle grade fantasy novel, Rea and the Blood of the Nectar, is the recipient of the IPPY Gold Award.

Just Like Home 3

Healing Hounds (Just Like Home, Book Three)

By (author) Erin Soderberg Downing

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Walter the golden doodle is ready to find his forever home in book #3 in the Just Like Home series!

The Baby-sitter's Club meets Puppy Place in this heartwarming and fun middle grade series about a unique animal sanctuary, the full-time family (of both human and animal variety) who live there, and the rotating stable of animal guests who will come to the farm with an injury or challenge but will leave knowing what it really feels like to be loved and cared for.

Ruby and Henry welcome their next guest when an adorable, fluffy dog has to be rehomed when his owner moves into an assisted living community.

After a short stay on the farm while they try to help ease the transition from a life the pup is used to, the kids soon discover that what Walter needs help with most is finding a way to help others. And that's not going to happen on the farm. But when Ruby and Henry get the idea to work with a local agency to train Walter as a therapy pup, they begin to see just how much joy he's able to bring to others.

Contributor Bio

Erin Soderberg Downing has published more than seventy-five highly acclaimed novels for kids, including What Happened Then, Controlled Burn, and Just Keep Walking. She has also written several popular and bestselling series for young readers: The Great Peach Experiment, Puppy Pirates, and Just Like Home. The Baby-Sitters Club 35

Stacey and the Mystery of Stoneybrook (The Baby-Sitters Club #35)

By (author) Ann M. Martin

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

America's favorite series returns with a new look and a Netflix TV show.

Unlike Claudia and Dawn, Stacey's never been much for mysteries and ghost stories. But when she and Charlotte Johanssen hear terrible noises coming out of the old Hennessey place, Stacey thinks the Baby-sitters definitely have a mystery on their hands.

Mallory claims the house once made her have a horrible nightmare. And Kristy discovers that it was built on top of a graveyard!

Does Stoneybrook have a real, live haunted house? The Baby-sitters are going to find out—no matter how scary it maybe be!

Fearless (The Taylors #2)

By (author) Jen Calonita

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

New York Times bestselling author Jen Calonita tells the story of four best friends . . . all named Taylor (and all Swifties!) figuring out how to survive middle school together.

When the Taylors learn that this year's fifth grade school trip over spring break is to Nashville, they can't believe their luck. The trip will include a trip to the Country Music Hall of Fame, which offers school workshops like Songwriting 101, which is aspiring songwriter Teffy's dream come true!

But a trip this big doesn't come without a few bumps. Taylor has never been away from her family before and is nervous. Teffy is worried her songwriting dreams will be over before they can begin if no one likes her songs. TS fears making a big mistake by skipping volleyball tryouts to go away with her friends. And how will Tay Tay survive her assigned roommate -- mean girl Hannah?

If the Taylors want to make this trip the adventure of a lifetime, they'll have to find a way to overcome their worries and fears the way they always do -- by leaning on each other.

Contributor Bio

Jen Calonita graduated from Boston College where she majored in communications. This degree helped her land a job at a teen magazine where she got to interview several of her favorite movie and music stars! These days, Jen writes books for teens, including the Secrets of My Hollywood Life series. When she isn't working, Jen loves going running, taking pictures, and hanging out with her husband and two boys at their home on Long Island in New York. She also enjoys going on walks with her feisty Chihuahua named Jack, where she does her best brainstorming for whatever project she's working on next. You can find her online at www.jencalonitaonline.com.

Flight: A Story of Seeking Refuge

By (author) Alan Gratz

Sep 01, 2026 | Hardcover $15.99

From #1 New York Times bestselling author Alan Gratz comes a gripping, timely, 96-page bonus story about one girl's treacherous immigration journey that can be read alongside the novel Two Degrees, or on its own.

Daniela López is on a life-or-death journey.

Forced to flee their beloved home in Honduras, Dani and her family were headed north in search of safety--until a treacherous mistake ripped Dani's parents away. Now, Dani and her younger brother Carlos are on their own, and they have no choice but to keep going, in the desperate hope of finding their parents at the Mexico-United States border.

But to get there, they will have to ride on top of a roaring freight train known as "The Beast."

Rickety and deadly, The Beast makes hairpin turns at terrifying speeds and shoots through dark tunnels. And there is the constant danger of being caught by gangs and kidnappers along the way.

Surrounded by hundreds of fellow refugees, Daniela will have to figure out who she can and cannot trust--and fast. Otherwise, she and Carlos might not stand a chance of surviving...

From #1 New York Times bestselling author Alan Gratz (Refugee; Two Degrees) this timely original story, sensitively told, gives today's readers an accessible and gripping look at the immigrant experience and the courage it takes to start over.

The Last Resort

By (author) Erin Entrada Kelly

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

The next evolution in storytelling from New York Times bestselling, Newbery Medal Winning author Erin Entrada Kelly!

9 798225 079062

Twelve-year-old Lila has two goals for the summer:

1. Win back the friends who ditched her for being "too dramatic"
2. Stop being so dramatic

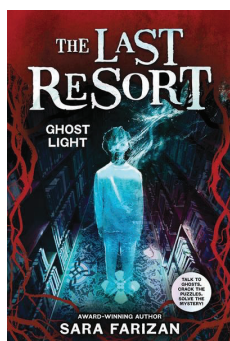

But then Lila's estranged Grandpa Clem dies, throwing a wrench in her plans. Now she'll have to spend the summer in Ohio while her parents decide what to do with Grandpa Clem's creepy Victorian Inn. It's supremely unfair. How can she show off the "new and improved" Lila from so far away?

Even worse, strange things keep happening. En route to Ohio, the family gets into a scary car accident. No one's hurt, but the remainder of the trip is... odd. At every rest stop, Lila sees people in weird old-fashioned clothes. People no one else can see or hear...

Lila convinces herself it's just her overactive imagination until the day of the funeral when she spots an old man sitting in her grandfather's favorite chair. She does a double take -- it's him, Grandpa Clem. He tells Lila that he didn't die of a heart attack: he was murdered. Possibly by someone who wants to control the inn. Because it's not a normal bed & breakfast: it's a portal between the land of the living and the realm of the dead. A hotel for ghosts passing onto the afterlife.

Ghost Light (The Last Resort #3)

By (author) Sara Farizan

Sep 01, 2026 | Hardcover $24.99

The line between the ghost world and our world gets even thinner in this haunting new installment of this multidimensional series where ghosts talk from the pages.

Rosteen is dead. He knows he's dead. And yet... he's still around. He died as a kid in the 1980s, but here he is in the 2020s, brought back to The Last Resort by Lila, Tobias, and Caleb -- who desperately need his help.

The problem? An evil ghost wants to make a comeback and cause a few more disasters that will inevitably cost people their lives. The only way for Rosteen, Lila, Tobias, and Caleb to stop her is to travel to the sites of some of her more infamous disasters in the past and find objects from those times that will somehow defeat her. And to do that, they'll need to bring back another ghost -- the one that killed Lila and Caleb's grandfather.

Rosteen has nothing left to lose... except his new friends, who could lose everything and become ghosts themselves if they make one wrong move.

Enter the world of The Last Resort! Talk to ghosts that come to life and help solve the mystery!

Inkworld: The Color of Revenge

By (author) Cornelia Funke

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $18.99

Vengeance awaits in the follow up to the epic, award-winning, New York Times bestselling Inkheart trilogy by internationally acclaimed author Cornelia Funke.

Five years after the events of Inkdeath, Meggie, Mo, and the people of Ombra lead peaceful lives, their fires warmed by the flames of Dustfinger—the Fire-Dancer. But when Dustfinger spots Orpheus’s glass man within the gates of Ombra, a familiar restlessness begins to haunt him once more. And for good reason...

The past five years have been a different story for Orpheus, who has spent his days living a meager and deprived existence, fueled only by his thirst for revenge against Dustfinger and all those who betrayed him. Now, Orpheus has found an unexpected way to seek vengeance against his greatest adversary. He has corrupted an artist to create bewitched portraits that will see the heroes fade to gray.

When Dustfinger’s deepest fears come true, he’ll have to figure out whether the words still obey Orpheus. Or if he should be afraid of the pictures this time...

Bitter Bones

By (author) Lindsay Puckett

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Bitter Bones is Holly Black's DOLL BONES meets J.A. White's NIGHTBOOKS, with all the fun and creepiness of K.R. Alexander.

Clay knows deep down in his bones that his mother was NOT killed by her dolls. An infamous toy maker, she disappeared eight years ago, sparking rumors of hauntings and creations come to life.

But to Clay, his mom is just your average runaway.

At least until her cryptic plea for help arrives, one that sends Clay on a twisted investigation exposing creepy, cult-like doll collectors, disturbing online urban legends, and a mysterious figure following Clay's every move only known as the Button-Eyed Man.

Clay won't abandon his mom like she did to him—he'll leave no road untaken to bring her back.

Even if that road is paved with his own bones.

Shadow Play

By (author) Dan Pablocki

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Fans of K.R. Alexander, Mary Downing Hahn, and India Hill Brown will flock to this spooky book that will haunt your dreams... literally.

Shelby and Jane aren't happy to be stuck with their grandparents, tucked away in the Catskills, surrounded by old, abandoned resorts. It's like the whole town is trapped in a dream. The days seem to drag on forever. That is, until neighbors tell them the legend of the psychic who used to perform at the theater next door. To this day, if you wait until night, then shine a light on the bare brick wall, shadows play out your future.

Shelby and Jane are no scaredy cats, so they go to check it out. To their horror, silhouettes appear and act out a murder. But then the silhouette of the murderer stops what he's doing and notices them -- his audience.

The kids RUN. But they can't escape the shadows that continue to haunt them in their nightmares. Will they be able to fight their fortunes... or will the nightmares become reality?

Scare Bear

By (author) K. R. Alexander

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

In the latest middle-school horror from K. R. Alexander, a boy learns that some gifts can never be returned...

Why won't you play with me?

Back when Gideon was in third grade, he received what he thought was a babyish present -- a teddy bear that kept telling him it wanted to be his friend. Gideon didn't think too much of it when he threw the bear away.

Now it's three years later -- and on Gideon's birthday, he finds a strange package. And inside it's... the same bear. Only now it looks like it's been run over by a truck. And instead of wanting to be friends, it wants... revenge.

Let It Wag: A Holiday Novel

By (author) Natalie McKeearin

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Let it snow, let it snow, let it...wag! Charm, cheer, and sweetness abound in this story about one girl's determination to create the perfect Christmas. Emmy-award winning author Natalie McKeearin (12 Strays of Christmas) presents another heartfelt story about change and grief that is the perfect gift for reluctant readers!

All Jules wants is to make life easier for her dad after their big move to Texas. Armed with her lists and love for all things merry and bright, Jules gets right to work planning the perfect first Christmas in their new home.

But then her dad surprises her with a massive foster dog who can't keep his paws off her plans! Sparky is energetic and destructive; he delights in knocking over their tree and ripping up ALL wrapping paper in sight. And Jules is not a dog person, unlike her semi-intriguing, wholly annoying new neighbor, Theo.

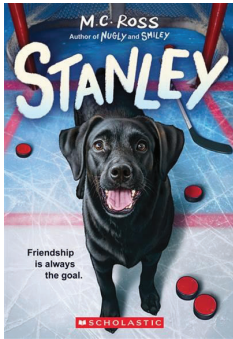

When a rare winter storm brings snow and chaos, everything stops. Suddenly, Jules is stuck with her dad, an unruly dog, and her crush/nemesis. How will she be able to have the perfect Christmas now?

Stanley

By (author) M. C. Ross

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Meet Stanley, a black Labrador Retriever who flunks out of service-dog training, in this all-new companion novel to M. C. Ross's beloved Nugly and Smiley!

Stanley, an incredibly friendly black Labrador Retriever, wants nothing more than to be helpful. There's just one problem -- he's just flunked out of service dog school for being too friendly.

Charlie, a seventh-grade hockey player, wants nothing more than to be one of the best players in Boston. That'll be tough, though, considering he's just been demoted to the local B-tier team, the Charlestown Bunkeroos, for being too intense on the ice.

These two may seem mismatched. But when Charlie discovers that Stanley's object-retrieval training makes him a secret training weapon, and Stanley realizes that Charlie clearly needs an encouraging friend, these two might just form a friendship that takes Boston by storm. And if they can take the Bunkeroos to the top of the league while doing it? Well, that'd be a reward as great as any Stanley cup.

The Team

By (author) Daphne Benedis-Grab

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

"We play with passion and we play with heart. And sometimes that passion goes too far."

When a violent event sends a middle school reeling just before the Homecoming football game, secrets start to come to the surface...

The Cottonwood middle school's undefeated football team, the Coyotes, are on the field, working to maintain their record. But suddenly the game comes to a halt. A hard hit has taken a player down—and he's been injured so badly he'll never play again. And then the very next day, the athletic office and coach's computer are found totally trashed.

A culprit is found almost immediately: Brian Miller, "the Destroyer," one of the best players on the team. Except . . . why would such a loyal and talented player do something like that to his own team?

Unless he didn't actually do it. Three kids decide to figure out what really happened. But as they start to ask questions, the threats start arriving.

What happens when winning is more important than anything else, and when obedience to the team is more important than anyone else?

This is a gripping read about what happens when a culture of total loyalty goes too far.

Wild Wave (The Wild Series)

By (author) Rodman Philbrick

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Another WILD adventure from Rodman Philbrick, author of Wildfire and Wild River. Wild Wave is the adventure of two kids trapped in the aftermath of a tsunami. It's kids vs. nature in another edge-of-your seat read!

When a tsunami heads for the coast, Nick Chase and Jess Hardy have to run. They make it into the woods above the bay--only to see the sea flooding their whole neighborhood along the shore. Destroying everything.

In the broken landscape that's left behind, the two must try to find their way to safety. But when they come across a stranded elderly couple, it's up to Nick and Jess to work together and get help so that they can all make it out alive.

This is another gripping environmental survival story from the Newbery Honor author of Wildfire and Wild River.

Contributor Bio

Newbery Honor author Rodman Philbrick has written more than a dozen novels for young readers. In 1993, he published his first children's book, Freak the Mighty, which became an instant classic, and was made into a feature film. *The Mostly True Adventures of Homer P. By (author) Rodman Philbrick

Oct 20, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

When Jack's bus slides off the road in the middle of a blizzard, it's up to him to go for help through the raging storm. It's kids vs. nature in an edge-of-your seat read!

A WILD adventure from Rodman Philbrick, author of Wildfire, Wild River, and Wild Wave.

Jack and his friends are on the school bus driving back from a science fair when a bomb cyclone hits. Out of nowhere, blinding snow fills the sky, and a powerful wind starts to shake the bus.

Moments later, the bus swerves off the road, crashing into the trees, and leaving their teacher unconscious at the wheel. With minimal resources, limited fuel, the blizzard only getting worse, and the bus getting colder every minute, the kids will have to figure out how to get to safety before they freeze to death.

Jack volunteers to head out into the snowy woods to make the long trek back to school... but what's that strange sound he hears in the trees?

Will Jack's resourcefulness and determination—and the unexpected help of a wild dog—be enough to get them home alive? This is a gripping survival story from the Newbery Honor author of Wildfire and Wild River.

Spells to Mend Broken Hearts

By (author) Marissa Macy

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

Rebecca Stead meets Sarah Mlynowski in this enchanting, relatable, and commercial middle grade novel about dealing with divorce, friendship breakups, and how much we wish that magic could fix it all.

Alex is pretty sure the universe is conspiring against her. Friendless in a new town and with her parents constantly fighting, Alex spends her birthday unpacking alone when she comes across her grandmother's book of small magic. Alex doesn't believe in that stuff, but with no birthday plans and nothing to lose, she performs a ritual from the book to attract a friend.

It's just a coincidence that Tess crashes into her life the very next day...right? Their friendship forms fast and strong, and the way Tess makes Alex's heart flutter definitely feels like some kind of magic. Together, they make their way through the book's spells and rituals, healing Tess's recently broken heart and trying to mend Alex's broken family.

But it feels as though the book is turning on Alex when her parents announce they're separating. And when Tess uses a ritual to win back her ex-boyfriend, Alex is forced to face a truth she had not considered. Maybe the magic she felt with Tess was more than friendship...

Tot the Toad Makes a Mess

By (author) Jim Benton

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $20.99

Pig the Pug* meets Pete the Cat in this hilarious new series starring a grumpy little toad with a big attitude. From the mind of master humorist Jim Benton!

Tot the Toad is just like every grouchy kid: he doesn't want to clean up after himself, or go to bed, or do his homework. He hates loud noises, new situations, and anything that throws off his routine. And tonight, he definitely doesn't want to eat dinner! Relatable to picky kids and annoyed parents alike, this contrarian amphibian will turn even the biggest frowns upside down.

Jim Benton is known for creating lovably grumpy characters like Catwad, Franny K. Stein, and Jamie Kelly (Dear Dumb Diary). Now he's bringing his trademark humor and illustrations to this hilarious new picture book!

It's Only Dancing

By (author) Jasmine Guillory

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $21.99

New York Times bestselling author Jasmine Guillory makes her highly-anticipated young adult debut with a Dirty Dancing-inspired contemporary romcom!

It's the summer before her senior year of high school and Kat (Kitty to her family) planned to spend it reading good books, working on her college applications, and enjoying her independence. Instead, she's stuck for an entire month with her family at a camp in the desert in Southern California.

When she stumbles across a staff party on the first night, she's jealous of their joyful, uninhibited dancing. She hasn't danced like that since two years ago, when she was forced to quit ballet, which she once loved more than anything. She's determined to leave dance where it belongs -- the past.

But Jordan, the handsome and magnetic hip-hop dance instructor, keeps dragging it into her present. As Kat begins sneaking around and lying to her parents to spend time with Jordan, she'll have to ask herself -- what is she willing to risk to finally feel free? And is it possible her feelings for Jordan could reignite her love for dance?

IT'S ONLY DANCING

JASMINE GUILLORY

Dear Readers,

If you asked anyone who knew me as a kid what I cared about, they would likely say two things: books and dance. I was a total book-worm, always coming home from the library with enormous stacks of books, tearing through them in days, and going back for more as soon as possible. But I didn't want to be a writer when I grew up: I wanted to be a ballerina. I loved my ballet classes, the beauty and artistry of them, seeing what my body could do. I wanted to do it all.

But the thing about my body, I learned as I got older, was that it wasn't the right kind of body for a ballet dancer. I gave up dance as a preteen, and that hurt, though thankfully, after some time and space, I found that I could still love dance. I love going to the ballet. I love every dance movie that has ever been released (please, talk to me about Centerstage or Save the Last Dance anytime). And, of course, I love—oh, do I love!—Dirty Dancing.

I have so much respect for, and love and tenderness toward, teenage girls, so I'm delighted to introduce you to Kat, the main character of It's Only Dancing, my young adult debut (and my tenth book!). Kat also doesn't have the "right" kind of body for ballet, though she was a better ballet dancer than I ever was. She enters this book still hurt and angry about how her dance career ended, and convinced that she never wants to dance again. And she especially doesn't want to dance with Jordan, that too-cute-for-his-own-good dance teacher she meets at the summer camp her parents dragged her to. But Kat discovers a key thing about dance: Once it becomes a part of you, it's always there inside you. She doesn't want it to be! She tries to resist it! (The same can be said about her feelings for Jordan). But it's there all the same. (And her feelings for Jordan... also there, no matter how she tries to fight them).

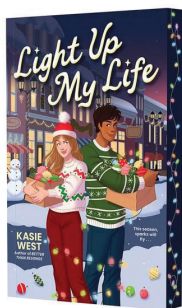

Kat is prickly and frustrated and resentful, she's also funny and awkward and curious and kind, and I loved writing her so very much. I hope you love her, and Jordan, and their assorted friends and family members who appear in this book. Thank you so much for reading!

Light Up My Life: A Holiday Novel

By (author) Kasie West

Oct 20, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $20.99

This season, sparks will fly...

Romeo & Juliet meets cozy Christmas rom-com in this delectable new novel from beloved author Kasie West. What happens when the son and daughter of two rival families--both competing for the best decorated house this holiday--fall in love? Perfect for fans of Fake Skating and Pumpkin Spice and Everything Nice!

For as long as Jasmine Costa can remember, her family has had a sworn enemy: the snobby Moreno family, who live next door. Jasmine especially can't stand the teenage son, Ryan, who acts like he's so much better than her.

This Christmas, the rivalry heats up when their small town holds a contest for best-decorated house. Jasmine has to take home the trophy. But then she and Ryan unexpectedly get thrown together during a holiday party...and discover that they have undeniable (and inconvenient) chemistry. Uh-oh.

As a secret romance blossoms amid the snow and the tinsel, Jasmine will have to make a choice. Can she stay loyal to her loved ones while falling for the one boy who's off-limits?

Beloved author Kasie West delivers a cozy Christmas rom-com that's the perfect read for anyone who's ever had a crush.

Reviews*Praise for Listen to Your Heart:

"The fun and lighthearted read features teenagers trying to navigate high school's emotional highways as they deal with schoolwork, romance, and friends. Serious but humorous Kate (along with outgoing Alana) keeps readers engaged as she tries to solve dilemmas in both the podcast and relationship spheres. An easy fit for those who like comfortable high-school romantic dramas." -- Booklist

"A tender story about friendship and love." -- Kirkus Reviews

"Kate and Diego have adorable chemistry. West delivers banter with plenty of sparks as Kate steps up to the mic. The character's emotional growth will resonate with readers as she discovers courage and new confidence." -- School Library Journal

Radio Free Texas

By (author) Libba Bray

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $30.99

From beloved bestselling author Libba Bray, a story of love, rock n' roll, and sex (in that order) in 1980s Texas.

Bowie (pronounced "boo-eee") is a little bit lost in his small Texas town. As he starts his senior year, the only thing he's pretty sure of is that he has a crush on Comet Jensen, a girl who's such a firecracker that she actually sets a firecracker off on the first day of school.

Since Comet's one wrong move away from getting expelled, Bowie steps in and takes the blame for the firecracker stunt. His punishment? Community service at a local radio station run by an anti-social, anti-establishment anti-hero named Marlon. Suddenly Bowie finds he not only has something to do, but he also has something to say. And, possibly, a future with Comet.

In the tradition of The Perks of Being a Wallflower, Eleanor & Park, Dazed & Confused, and The Last Picture Show, this is a funny, touching story about how coming-of-age, like love, is never a solo project.

Contributor Bio

Libba Bray is the author of the 2010 Printz Award winning Going Bovine, and the acclaimed Gemma Doyle trilogy. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

ReviewsPraise for Beauty Queens:

"Beauty Queens is a madcap surrealist satire of the world in which her readers have come of age -- reality TV, corporate sponsorship, product placement, beauty obsession -- but ultimately, it's a story of empowering self-discovery." -- New York Times Book Review

* "Readers will come for the twisted fun and walk away with a whole banquet of questions." -- Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, starred review

* "Whip-smart social commentary, surreal plot elements, and feminist themes come together in this bizarre and brilliant story... The empowering theme of self-acceptance and the affirming message that women should not underestimate themselves or others makes this novel a potentially life-changing book for budding feminists." -- School Library Journal, starred review

Up from the Ashes

By (author) Sharon Cameron

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

#1 New York Times bestselling author Sharon Cameron returns with a stunning story about the fight to survive - and find love - in the face of the ugliest of nightmares, based on the true story of two heroes and their resistance in the Sobibor death camp during the Holocaust.

Selma Wijnberg is a criminal, a prisoner. Because she is Jewish. For this crime, in the depths of Hitler's occupation of Holland, Selma is deported to the Sobibor death camp, sentenced to sort the clothes of the dead while a smoke made of thousands blackens the sky. And in the light of this enormous funeral pyre, at the end of a Nazi pistol, Selma is ordered to dance. The hand that offers to dance with her is strong. Steady. It belongs to Chaim Engel. Chaim is a Polish Jew and also a prisoner. Chaim and Selma don't speak the same language. But sometimes, love doesn't need a language.

Who falls in love in the middle of hell? Chaim and Selma do. And who knew that love could kindle so much hope.

But when the prisoners of Sobibor hatch a daring plan of escape, it is time to kill or be killed. The gate or the fire. Chaim and Selma will go out on their feet, or out with the smoke. In an hour of terror and panic, of bullets and bloodshed, Chaim and Selma discover that hope--and two hands twined tightly together--can be the key to keeping two people alive.

Based on the remarkable true story of Selma Wijnberg and Chaim Engel, and the infamous revolt and escape of the Sobibor death camp prisoners, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Light in Hidden Places, Sharon Cameron crafts an extraordinary and evocative thriller that celebrates how hope and love can conquer even the most impossible of odds.

The Unpoetic Life of August Grey

By (author) Max Fischer

Oct 20, 2026 | Hardcover $28.99

Pushcart Prize-nominated poet, Max Fischer delivers a raw, lyrical, and heart-shattering novel-in-verse, The Unpoetic Life of August Grey, about grief, first love, and the joy of becoming who you are.

You can only hold your breath underwater for three minutes before you go unconscious. For seventeen-year-old August Grey, life in his small Nebraska town has felt like that endless third minute ever since his best friend Waylon died.

When August earns a coveted spot at a prestigious summer writing program in New York, he believes it's his one chance to heal – and to keep the promise made to Waylon to pursue his dream. But New York brings its own challenges: a strained reunion with an estranged father, the weight of trying to write without Waylon there, and the unexpected arrival of Levi, August's old crush who knows nothing of his failed coming out.

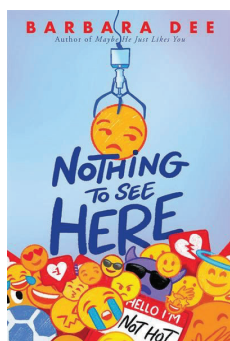

As August wrestles with grief, secrets, and the tentative spark of new love, he must decide if he can finally surface – embracing his queer identity and the joy of being himself before the past threatens to drown his future.

In the tradition of The Poet X by Elizabeth Acevedo, I Wish You All the Best by Mason Deaver, and Me (Moth) by Amber McBride, Pushcart Prize-nominated poet Max Fischer delivers a searing, unforgettable debut about loss, queer joy, and the strength it takes to breathe again.

Contributor Bio

Nothing to See Here

By (author) Barbara Dee

Oct 20, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

After an online incident forces a student to leave their school, four students team up and start posting fake rumors as an experiment to show everyone the dangers of online gossip in this high stakes and heartfelt story from highly acclaimed author Barbara Dee.

How far is too far?

Between her best friend ditching her and her parents taking away her phone, Winnie's year is off to a rough start. But eighth grade gets even more complicated when she's named on the Not Hot list by an anonymous online account.

Gia's on the Hot list, but she'd rather not be. There's already enough chatter about her online—how she thinks she's smarter and better than everyone else, and lately, that she's secretly dating Mateo.

Mateo isn't dating Gia, but he's had a crush on her for over a year now. But kids online are saying they have nothing in common, and he doesn't want to make her uncomfortable.

Mateo's best friend Levi doesn't mind that he's not the one in the spotlight. He's

Licorice

By (author) Kara LaReau , Illustrated by Kelly Murphy

Oct 20, 2026 | Hardcover $25.99

A young and frightened kitten is brought starry-eyed into a new household. A boy named Max is trying desperately to get over the loss of his former beloved pet. But ghosts don't always enjoy being forgotten. Sometimes they have to make their presence known.

Both spine-chilling and heartwarming, funny and charming, Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor winning author Kara LaReau has written a story about fitting in, standing out, overcoming fear, and finding a place called home.

In her cage at the Mount Charles Animal Shelter, Kitty has no other choice but to be the captive audience of the opinionated Bunny Van Hopper. But it's better than the woods. Kitty can still remember the rain that came and swept everything... everyone... away. Here, at least she has food and company, even if Bunny's words scare her.

And then Max appears at the shelter. Max has adopted all sorts of pets over the years. Rumor has it that he treats all of his pets with care and kindness. And of all the animals at the shelter, he actually chooses her—a scrawny and scared kitten. Kitty is going to be home at last. But she can't seem to get Bunny's words out of her head as Max takes her away in her carrier...

"You're going to regret this! I just know it!" Bunny Van Hopper cries. And perhaps

LICORICE

KARA LAREAU

Dear Friend,

I've always had a cat in my life. Sometimes, I've had two or three. The more the merrier (and certainly meow-ier).

When we brought home our current cats, sisters Ella and Lulu, our previous cat, Sugar, had passed away just a few months earlier. I wondered: Could these kittens sense that other feline companions had lived in our house before them? Immediately, I was reminded of Daphne du Maurier's classic gothic tale, Rebecca, with its naïve protagonist haunted (and daunted) by her predecessor. When those thoughts came together, my imagination took over.

I hope you enjoy Licorice, my latest story for young readers and my first stand-alone middle grade novel. And I hope you'll find that I've remained true to the gothic spirit of Rebecca, with all its themes and layers—light and dark, love and loss, fear and bravery, psychology and phantasmagory. At the same time, this is an animal friendship story in the classic middle grade tradition, with warmth and humor, as well as short chapters brilliantly illustrated by my friend (and Providence, Rhode Island, neighbor) Kelly Murphy.

Licorice reaches out its ghostly paws to the full middle grade spectrum of young readers, and beyond. You're all invited to 5 Manderley Lane, even—and especially!—those who aren't familiar with Daphne du Maurier. I look forward to initiating new members into her fan club. And in general, I hope this story provides a gateway into all things gothic and spooky.

Thank you, in advance, for following me through this fateful cat door.

Yours in furry tails and twisty tales,

Kara LaReau

They Will Not Save Us

By (author) Marie Arnold

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

The Forgotten Girl* meets Hide and Seek in this terrifying MG horror that returns the Zombie to its homeland, the island nation of Haiti.

Lena is a descendant of a long line of Mambos -- Vodou priestesses. She's basically been raised to stir things up. There's no mess she can't wriggle out of, even when she's the one who made it in the first place. But there are problems that even Lena can't fix... She can't bring her father back from the dead. She can't make her mother laugh the way she used to. And she can't forgive the gods for taking her father away.

When a mysterious man arrives in Lena's small Haitian village and moves into the giant house on its outskirts, she finally has something to distract her from her father's death.

But the distraction doesn't last. Strange things start to happen in her village. People start staring at Lena like they don't recognize her at all. Their eyes go blank. Their steps turn stiff.

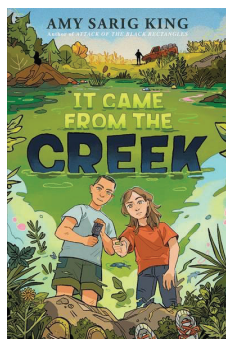

Zombie-stiff.

And wherever Lena runs, they follow.

As the village erupts into chaos, Lena must put her skills to the test. She'll have to save her friends, figure out what's controlling everyone, and stay one step ahead of the horde. Because if she wants to survive, she might have to do the one thing

It Came from the Creek

By (author) Amy Sarig King

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $26.99

From the award-winning author of ATTACK OF THE BLACK RECTANGLES, a novel about standing up to bullies -- whether they're kids or adults.

There's something in the water. It smells really bad. It's a strange color. And it's making people sick.

Katy and her best friend Joel can tell something is going wrong in their town. They decide to document it, trying to solve the mystery of what's going on. Someone is dumping toxic waste in places it shouldn't go... and even when he's told to stop, he goes ahead and keeps dumping it anyway.

Both in school and outside of it, Kate and Joel are learning that bullies do what they do because they think they can get away with it, because they think they're bigger than the rules. There has to be a way to make them stop... but it just might take a whole town coming together in order to do it.

Dear America

Voyage on the Great Titanic (Dear America)

By (author) Ellen Emerson White

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $13.99

The beloved, bestselling Dear America series continues to dazzle with the perennial favorite, Voyage on the Great Titanic, in a stunning deluxe paperback edition.

Five years ago, Margaret Ann Brady's older brother left her in the care of an orphanage and immigrated to America. When the orphanage receives an unusual request from an American woman looking for a traveling companion, Margaret's teachers agree that she is the perfect candidate to accompany Mrs. Carstairs on the Titanic's maiden voyage. Once Margaret arrives in New York, she will finally be free to join her brother in Boston. But the Titanic is destined for tragedy, and Margaret's journey is thrown into a frozen nightmare when the ship collides with an iceberg.

Contributor Bio

Ellen Emerson White has written several critically acclaimed novels for young adults, among them THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER, and its follow-up, LONG MAY SHE REIGN, as well as LIFE WITHOUT FRIENDS and LONG LIVE THE QUEEN. Praise for Dear America:

"This Scholastic series combines two truths--that imagining oneself into history is the best way of learning it, and that diaries are the most intimate art form--to create books that tell history through young girls' eyes. Both girls and boys, tired of hearing about history from the top down, will find an entry point for their imaginations in these fictional diaries based on actual people and real events." -- Gloria Steinem, Founder of Ms. and New York magazines

"More than a supplement to classroom textbooks, this series is an imaginative, solid entre into American history." -- Publishers Weekly

"An impressive series that will challenge students to make connections from prominent historical events to relevant life situations... A wonderful asset to the classroom as well as to home libraries." -- Children's Book Review Service

Now That We Don't Talk

By (author) Sylvia Liu

Oct 06, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

It's The Parent Trap...with best friends and dogs! This multiple POV story is both relatable and realistic to the experience of shifting friendships at the start of middle school, while also being funny and so much fun.

Grace and Mia are best friends, and so are their dogs! Penny is a pug who hates squirrels but loves playing with her best friend, Otis, a Frenchie with an impressive vocabulary. Grace and Mia are excited to start middle school together, but they soon find out that it's anything but smooth sailing. The girls have no classes together and they find themselves drawn to different activities. Penny and Otis hatch a plan to get them to spend more time together, but they only end up making things worse!

As the girls start drifting apart, it looks like the forever in BFF may have a time limit. But Penny and Otis cannot accept a friendship breakup between their girls. Soon they're conspiring to heal the friendship, but will two rambunctious, forgetful dogs be able to save the day?

That Beautiful MindBy (author) MSS Tami Charles , By (author) Chris Charles ,
Illustrated by Nikkolas Smith

Oct 06, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

From New York Times bestselling author Tami Charles and her son, Chris Charles, comes a soaring and poetic celebration of the beautiful minds that make us all unique!

Some days it feels like my mind doesn't work right. Mom says otherwise. "That beautiful mind is what makes you unique."

This poetry-in-motion, sing-out-loud story follows the journey of one young boy as he navigates the challenges of his constantly running, brilliantly creative, and ever-so-busy brain. From basketball to baking with grandpa, to math class, and high-scoring video game conquests, readers will see that his one-of-a-kind mind is his greatest strength, and though challenges may come, he is all the stronger for it!

From bestselling author, Tami Charles, and her son, Christopher Charles, comes a rhythmic text that will speak to any child -- and every child -- who has needed an extra second or a second chance to harness the power of their own unique gifts and limitless potential. Stunning illustrations by New York Times bestselling artist Nikkolas Smith (I Am Ruby Bridges, Born on the Water) brings to life the joy, frustration, and triumph of navigating the world as a neurodivergent child. That Beautiful Mind celebrates the power and diversity of every child's beautiful mind, and the dynamic and prismatic way so many children think and learn.

A Drop of Color

By (author) Elizabeth Ese

Nov 03, 2026 | Hardcover $28.99

Sharp, timely, and unforgettable — A Drop of Color is a coming-of-age story about belonging, betrayal, and Black girlhood.

For as long as she can remember, seventeen-year-old Gabrielle's existence has been a balancing act. Between begrudgingly accepting her role as her predominantly white school's Token Black Girl, and performing the role of the dutiful Nigerian daughter at home, she's not left with much time to simply exist as Gabby. But as far as she's concerned, survival is her main priority — even if it means perpetually walking on eggshells in both spaces.

With her senior year in full swing, Gabrielle can finally see the light at the end of the tunnel. But when a racist incident erupts within her social circle, Gabrielle can no longer justify letting it slide and breaks the Oakmont Academy's unspoken code: no snitching. Suddenly, social butterfly Gabrielle is transformed into a social pariah.

Now on the outs with the Oakmont student body, Gabrielle is faced with a choice: fighting to return to the idea of 'normal' she'd worked for years to curate, or finally reckoning with the aspects of her identity that she's trained herself to subdue — her Blackness, her Nigerian-ness, and the space where the disconnect between those identities exists.

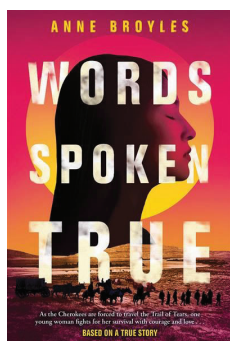

With razor-sharp honesty and emotional depth, debut author Elizabeth Ese

Words Spoken True

By (author) Anne Broyles

Nov 03, 2026 | Hardcover $28.99

Award-winning author Anne Broyles weaves the lyrical story of fourteen-year-old Jane Bushyhead and her family's forced removal, upon threat of death, from their home in the ancestral Cherokee Nation. Based on a true story, this evocative, compelling account of the pain and hardships endured, as well as the love and courage summoned by the Cherokees on the Trail of Tears, is equal measures heartbreaking and hopeful.

Jane Bushyhead dreams of one day becoming a teacher. But everything changes when she and her family are forced from their ancestral Cherokee homeland by US soldiers at gunpoint. After months of imprisonment and uncertainty, Jane and her people are then ordered to march eight hundred miles to "Indian Territory" (modern-day Oklahoma) during one of the worst winters of the 19th century.

It's a grueling journey--many of the Cherokee people are barefoot and unprepared for the freezing weather--and all go hungry as supplies dwindle and sickness abounds. Yet, Jane finds romance with a young man who has been adopted by the Cherokees and comfort within the loving embrace of her family.

As the dangerous journey unfolds, and Jane finds purpose in teaching and recording the stories of her people, she will be forced to bear witness as they perish from starvation, disease, and deadly hazards of the trail. Soon, Jane will have to face an impossible choice between love and her own family.

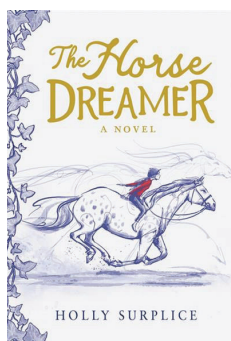

Award-winning author and enrolled member of the Cherokee Nation, Anne Broyles brings the Trail of Tears to desperate, vivid life in this beautiful story about courage, community, memory, and love.

The Horse Dreamer

By (author) Holly Surplice , Illustrated by Holly Surplice

Nov 03, 2026 | Hardcover $27.99

A classic in the making, The Horse Dreamer is a stunning, hopeful and poignant story about one girl and a horse who helps her rediscover the joy and life that surround us.

A creature of courage and hope.

A companion when you are lost.

A friend when you are alone.

The horse arrives in the storm, when Merryn needs him most, following the loss of her father. Sorrel is a dreamlike creature, seemingly made from the woods and the sea. Perhaps she wished him into existence. He becomes her friend and confidant.

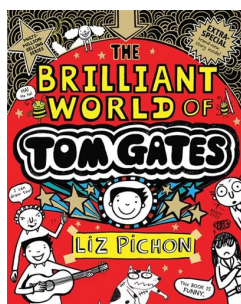

Throughout the summer and autumn, they ride and play, but as Christmas approaches, it will require all of Merryn's newfound strength to help her mom and her sisters heal too.

By (author) Liz Pichon , Illustrated by Liz Pichon

Nov 03, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $14.99

An extra-special, super-good 15th anniversary edition of the book that started the Tom Gates phenomenon, with a brand new cover and bonus story content!

The first title in the bestselling series from the brilliantly talented Liz Pichon.

Tom Gates is the master of excuses for late homework: dog attacks & spilt water & lightning...

Tom's exercise book is full of his doodles, cartoons and thoughts, as well as comments from his long-suffering teacher, Mr Fullerton.

After gaining five merits for his CAMPING SUCKS holiday story, Tom's work starts to go downhill - which is a pity, as he's desperate to impress Amy Porter, who sits next to him...

Contributor Bio

- Inventing new ways to annoy my sister Delia. (So many).
- Band practice for DOGZOMBIES (with my mate Derek).
- Watching TV and eating caramel wafers.
- Eating caramel wafers and watching TV.

Excellent.

Unfortunately a couple of small problems called the dentist and my big weirdo sister, Delia, seem to be getting in the way of my BRILLIANT plans...

"Nonstop action, real history, serious danger. You gotta read these books!" -- Alan Gatz, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Refugee

April 29, 1975

In the early morning hours, Malcolm and Violet are woken by their dad and told to pack up and be ready to leave in three minutes. Their dad works for the United States Embassy in Vietnam and the North Vietnamese Army, alongside Viet Cong guerrilla fighters, have attacked. The Vietnam War isn't over.

Malcolm and Violet scramble to pack their things and rush to the embassy with their dad. There is an evacuation plan to get Americans and their allies out of the country—as long as your name is on the official list. The twins and their dad are on the list, but the siblings realize their best friend Bao isn't. Determined to help Bao and his family, Malcolm and Violet sneak out of the embassy to find their friend and convince officials to put his family on the list. But the streets have become a battleground, and Malcolm and Violet don't have much time. If they don't make it back to the embassy before the last helicopter leaves, they'll be trapped behind enemy lines forever.

When the World War II Blitz begins, two kids search desperately for their families as Nazi bombs rain down on London.

Charlie "Sneak" Sawyer never wanted to leave London, despite his uneasy relationship with his grandfather. But when the orders come for children to evacuate as the world teeters on the brink of war, Grandad insists Charlie leaves with the rest.

Months pass; the expected bombing of London doesn't happen, and kids begin drifting back from the countryside. After a year spent toiling for a grumpy farmer, Charlie's had enough. He decides to sneak home to London, whatever it takes.

Shortly before he turns thirteen, Charlie does just that, only to be waylaid by Lucie Marie Meadows, a precocious girl with golden eyes.

A girl who might be able to see ghosts. A girl who's keeping secrets.

Charlie and Lucie arrive in London the afternoon of September 7, 1940--the very afternoon when Nazi planes cross the sky and drop their first deadly loads. The Blitz has begun.

Suddenly, London is a fiery, smoking maze of rubble, danger, and chaos. The explosions are so terrifying even the ghost of a WWI soldier roams the theater he haunts, unable to rest.

Somehow, with a rescued dog called Smoke, Charlie and Lucie must search for

Park Survival: Lost in Alaska

By (author) Vera Starbard

Nov 03, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $13.99

Backcountry meets Megan E. Freeman's Alone in this survival/adventure middle grade about a boy who must rediscover his Indigenous culture while adventuring in Glacier Bay National Park with a team of loyal dogs.

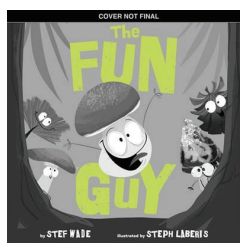

Emmett wants nothing more than to just stay in one place -- finish school with the same friends, live in the same house, sleep in the same bed. His mother's work means that they're always moving around. But this time is different. This time, she's promised not to move them anymore. But when she gets a once-in-a-lifetime job working as a Tlingit clan-house caretaker in Glacier Bay National Park, Emmett is forced to leave his familiar home (again) and enter a whole new world, a world full of trees, breathtaking mountains, snow bluffs, and giant lakes -- lots of pups!

He doesn't know much about his mother's small hometown of Hoonah, Alaska, or about the Tlingit culture she was born into. And when they arrive, he meets Kaasteen, a cousin he's never known and who seems to have infinitely more knowledge about their culture than he does. She's lived in Alaska all her life, and her family has lived beside Glacier Bay National Park for generations. She talks to animals, has way more dogs than Emmett cares to count, and even speaks a language that he doesn't understand. Could she be any more annoying?

Emmett would love to go back to his old friends and old home, and he's happy to let Kaasteen hear about it. But when the two get into an argument that leads to Kaasteen getting lost in the park, Emmett will have to utilize the skills he's learned from his family to save her. Will they be enough?

Contributor Bio

Wallace's Story (The Dodo)

By (author) Aubre Andrus

Sep 15, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $12.99

The true story of a cat with a giant heart who was healed with love -- as seen on The Dodo!

When Wallace was brought to Nikki's animal rescue as a kitten, she knew right away there was something wrong with his heart. She took him to a special vet who told her Wallace might not live long. Nikki was determined to give the kitten the best life possible -- no matter how long it was.

But as Wallace spent more time with Nikki, he grew stronger. And soon, despite all odds, his health seemed to be getting better! This true story teaches us that sometimes love and support are the key to healing.

This story is perfect for middle-grade readers and comes with an eight-page full-color photo insert!

Contributor Bio

Aubre Andrus is an award-winning children's book author who has written for Scholastic, American Girl, Highlights for Children, and more. The Forgotten War: A World War II Battle on American Soil

By (author) Candace Fleming

Sep 01, 2026 | Hardcover $28.99

From highly acclaimed, award-winning author Candace Fleming comes a thrilling, evocative, and shockingly personal examination of a forgotten corner of World War II history: the invasion and occupation of Alaska's Attu Island by Imperial Japanese Armed Forces and the ensuing battle to reclaim it.

Charlie Groth has just been drafted into the US Army's 7th Infantry as a litter bearer in October 1942 when he boards a ship bound for remote parts of Alaska. Japanese forces have invaded mere months after their deadly attack on Pearl Harbor and are occupying two of the Aleutian islands. Yet Charlie and his fellow soldiers have been assured it's bound to be an easy fight and a quick victory. The boys will be home with their families for the holidays.

It will be three years before Charlie sees his family again.

Paul Nobuo Tatsuguchi is a physician in the Imperial Japanese Armed Forces with a penchant for journaling, a way to distract himself from how much he misses his wife and young daughters. As Charlie and his troops make their way to Attu Island, Paul and his troops construct foxholes, field hospitals, and trenches in preparation for the vicious battle to come.

When the two armies meet amid the fog and freezing rain, neither side is ready for the desperate fight that will become the second bloodiest battle in the Pacific after Iwo Jima. And neither is prepared for the price that patriotism and loyalty will demand.

Following two parallel stories from opposite sides of the conflict and capturing the war through first-person accounts and archival photographs, acclaimed

Marisa Aveling is a writer and editor based in Los Angeles by way of Perth, Australia. While she enjoys writing about everything from spiritual jazz to cow burps, Marisa can never quite get used to writing about herself in the third person. When she's not wrangling her young son, Marisa is thinking about the parking situation at her next destination.

Neil Vandenberg is an illustrator whose love for drawing started as a young boy when he first discovered Snoopy and the Peanuts Gang in the funnies section of the Chicago Tribune newspaper. Over the past 25 years, Neil has worked with Monster Jam to bring truck ideas to life, designing some of the brand's most iconic trucks! He currently lives in Wisconsin with family. When he isn't geeking out about comics and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle action figures, he likes to spend time in the woods — hiking with his wife, building awesome forts with his two kids, and desperately hoping to be bitten by a radioactive spider!

Twisted Paths (Skibidi Original Novel #2)

By (author) Lyndsay Ely

Sep 01, 2026 | Paperback, Trade | $18.99

Someone is puppeteering their surroundings and meddling with their minds . . .

The defeat of the Skibidi Toilet army has proven to be short-lived. After their momentous victory over the Astro Toilets, three Alliance members – Zero, Spike, and Ray – wake up in an unfamiliar location with no memory of how they got there. Trapped in a labyrinth of mazes and deadly traps, they must fight their way through a series of dangers where it's nearly impossible to tell what is real and what isn't. Just who is this more powerful enemy working in the shadows? And can this overmatched trio survive long enough to find out?

One of the most important lessons a young witch or wizard learns is how to duel. Now, readers will have the same information at their fingertips in the official Dueling Wands book! This book breaks down the basics of dueling and some of the most recognizable spells. Plus, relive some of the biggest, most exciting duels from the Harry Potter films, like those between Harry and Draco, and Dumbledore's Army and the Death Eaters.

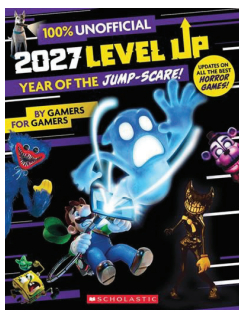

Readers can put this knowledge to the test as they pretend to duel a friend. This book comes with TWO sound-making wands that readers can use to recreate famous wizarding battles and imagine their own. Both wands are motion-activated and will make one of five spell sound effects when waved, like the crack of a Stunning Spell or the whoosh of a Disarming Charm. The five spell sounds in the wands are randomized, so each duel will be a new adventure!

With full-color art and movie facts throughout, this interactive wand book is a must-have for all Harry Potter fans!
