A coming-of-age story set in the world of hockey

This riveting graphic novel memoir tells the story of one Canadian hockey player's unique and incredible life experience - from being the only Black child in his Ukrainian community, to immigrating to Canada, and watching his loving, hardworking parents struggle to make ends meet in their newfound home. Through it all, Akim Aliu chronicles his discovery of the game of hockey, his obsessive passion for playing, and his ascent into the OHL and the NHL.

His love of his sport will inspire young hockey fans, while his honest revelations about the hurdles and systemic racism he experienced along the way as a child, as a teen and as an adult will provide eye-opening lessons to readers of all backgrounds. This remarkable life story is not to be missed!

About the Author

Born in Nigeria to a Nigerian father and a Ukrainian mother, Akim Aliu spent years of his youth in Africa and Ukraine before moving to Toronto. A hockey prodigy, Akim was drafted into the NHL as a teenager and played for the Calgary Flames. The systemic racism, hazing, and abuse he faced during his time in the OHL and NHL have fueled his passion to make sure all kids have access to be safe playing the sport they love, no matter their background.

In May 2020, Akim wrote an article for the Players' Tribune entitled "Hockey is Not for Everyone," detailing the racism and violence he endured as a black athlete in hockey. He has since partnered with the Time to Dream Foundation and the Hockey Diversity Alliance to help their mission to eradicate racism and intolerance in hockey, and continues to play hockey professionally in Europe.

An unforgettable and timely novel from award-winning author Erin Bow

Ages 9-12

Moving to the last town in America where no one can Google you is a chance for Simon O’Keeffe to start fresh. To rewrite the story – a story about a locked classroom, an active shooter, and a media cycle that refuses to let Simon go, even years later. And with the help of two new friends, a puppy, and a giant radio telescope, Simon is determined to say something new.

Excerpt from Simon Sort of Says:

People are always asking why my family came to the National Quiet Zone.

Like we need a reason. I mean, who wouldn't want to live in a place with no internet and no cell phones and no TV and no radio? Who wouldn't want to live surrounded by emu farms in a town that's half astrophysicists and half people who are afraid of their microwaves? I mean, isn't that the American Dream?

Hint: no.

Obviously, there's a story. So when people ask, I tell them we left Omaha because we were driven out by alpacas.

A powerful new novel by Erin Bow, winner of the Governor General's and TD Children's Literature Awards.

Ask Simon O'Keeffe why his family moved to tiny Grin And Bear It, Nebraska, and he'll tell you they were driven out of Omaha by alpacas.

In Simon's version of the story, a blessing of the animals went sideways, his dad got fired from his church job, and the whole family moved to the National Quiet Zone, where the internet and cell phones are banned so astronomers can scan the sky for signs of alien life.

But there's another story too — a story about a locked classroom, an active shooter, and a media cycle that refuses to let Simon go, even years later.

To everyone who knows what happened, Simon is either a miracle or a sob story. But Simon just wants to be Simon: a twelve-year-old in high tops and a Minecraft hoodie. Moving to the last town in America where no one can Google you is a chance for Simon to start fresh. To rewrite the narrative. And with the help of two new friends, a puppy, and a giant radio telescope, he's determined to say something new.

Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret for the TikTok generation

Ages 9-12

Told in the form of a secret diary shared by four anonymous seventh graders, P.S. Tell No One is a funny, fearless story of the lives and friendships of four tween girls – their feelings, their heartaches, their anxieties, and the ways they find answers to questions that continue to feel impossible to ask.

The Story Behind the Story

When I was in grade six, my friends and I were part of a pass-around diary. Instead of passing notes, we wrote down our thoughts, feelings, worries, and plans and discussed them at great length in a padded journal. I still have one of these diaries and I am struck by how honest we were with each other. It became a safe space for us to discuss everything from academic concerns to questions about tampons. In the diary, we could say things that were too hard to say aloud. In P.S. Tell No One I wanted to recreate that safe space. In the characters of Twix, Hoops, MP and Sunny, I hear echoes of myself, my friends, and the kids I meet at school visits on a regular basis.

As I started to write P.S. Tell No One, the updated Ontario Sex Ed curriculum was scrapped by the provincial government and a snitch line was set up encouraging parents to call in if they thought their child's teacher was teaching the discarded, more inclusive curriculum. Suddenly P.S. Tell No One felt more urgent. Where do kids go if they can't talk to their parents or their teachers about menstruation, period products, or consent? When kids have questions, especially sensitive ones, they turn to books. My hope is that P.S. Tell No One will be a life raft for a new generation of kids who find themselves treading in the rocky waters of puberty. By packing it full of humour, nitty-gritty facts, and real talk, my hope is that P.S. Tell No One is the kind of book kids will pass on to each other and say, "You HAVE to read this!"

A funny, frank contemporary story about navigating the physical and emotional realities of growing up.

When four friends have their phones confiscated in class, Sunny (not her real name) comes up with the idea of a secret shared journal, where they can communicate, share thoughts and pass them on. The pages of the book they jokingly refer to as the P.A.D. (pass-around diary) become filled with sweet, funny, sharp and important insights that speak to navigating middle grade life—friendships, crushes, consent, bodies, parents, siblings, periods, sports and student life.

What began as a lighthearted way of passing notes becomes a poignant and heartfelt way to explore and share big and small feelings and events—a safe way for Sunny, Twix, Hoops and MP to find themselves, and support one another, through all the transitions of a grade seven year.

In the tradition of Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret, this novel is a fearless exploration of the lives of tween girls, and how they find answers to questions that continue to feel impossible to ask.

The Superteacher Project

by Gordon Korman
Feb 07, 2023 Hardcover , Dust jacket $22.99 CAD

It's The Unteachables meets I, Robot in another funny middle school tale from Gordon Korman!

It's the start of a new school year and Oliver is looking forward to a seventh-grade year full of spitballs, jokes and pranks with his friend Nathan. And their new homeroom teacher, Mr. Aidact, looks like a prime target. He's an odd duck with a weird, stilted vocabulary, an unusual way of looking at things, and a strangely old student teacher constantly in tow. He also has a seemingly superhuman ability to detect and defuse almost every one of Oliver's schemes.

But that's not all of it. Mr. Aidact seems to be teaching pretty much every subject. He's willing to take over jobs no other teacher will, like supervising detention and coaching the field hockey team. Oliver and Nathan are determined to find out what is up with this guy.

What they uncover is out of this world!

Mr. Aidact is, in fact, superhuman — he's an android, a secret project of the Department of Education. And when the secret leaks out, the school and the PTA are in an uproar, and calls for his "deactivation" are loud and clear.

Can Oliver and his friends turn this plan around and save the teacher they've grown to love and appreciate?

Operation Do-Over

by Gordon Korman
Jan 03, 2023 Paperback , Trade $10.99 CAD

Gordon Korman's hilarious novel poses the question: What would you do if you were given the chance to do things over?

Mason and Ty have been best friends since they were old enough to form thoughts. But one day an atomic warhead walks into their seventh-grade classroom ready to annihilate their friendship: Ava Petrakis, the new transfer student from New York.

Mason finds himself competing against his best friend for the first time in his life, and it's not pretty. So they make a pact: a non-Ava treaty. If it worked for the Romulans and the Klingons, it has to work for them. At least that's what Mason thought until he realized Ava might actually like him back. Before he realizes it, he's kissing Ava beside the wrecked Tilt-a-Whirl sign in the middle of a freak storm, and his friendship with Ty is obliterated.

Five years later, Mason's life is a mess. He has no friends, no girlfriend, his dog has been hit by a Roto-Rooter truck, his parents are divorced and he has just been expelled from school in his senior year. Everything has gone wrong and he can trace all of it back to that one day by the Tilt-a-Whirl sign. If he could go back he would do everything differently. That's exactly what he's thinking when his Volkswagen crashes into a furniture van.

When he wakes up, he's 12 years old again. This is his chance for a do-over. Will Mason be able to fix everything, or are some things just a matter of fate?

The Sister Switch (Best Wishes #2)

by Sarah Mlynowski 🍁, Debbie Rigaud
Mar 07, 2023 Hardcover $21.99 CAD

This exciting new series following a magical bracelet that's sent to different girls across the country is like Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants for MG! In this second installment, co-written by bestselling authors Sarah Mlynowski and Debbie Rigaud, the bracelet comes to a girl in Ohio, and kicks off a Freaky Friday-style adventure.

Ten-year-old Addie Asante of Columbus, Ohio, is sick of being the middle sister. Her big sister, Sophie, can do whatever she wants, and her little sister, Camille, is totally spoiled. When Addie receives a mysterious box in the mail containing a magical bracelet — and a note from a girl in New York named Becca — she's intrigued. Addie makes a wish on the bracelet to no longer be in the middle and suddenly — POOF — she's literally transformed into her big sister!

At first, getting to be Sophie is amazing: Addie is allowed to hang out at the coffee shop after school, have her own room, AND participate in the school talent show . . . this is the life! But as her new long-distance friend Becca warns Addie, this wish-granting bracelet isn't all that it seems. Having a wish come true can get really messy really fast. Plus, in a twist of magical chaos, Addie's big sister has become the baby sister, and Addie's baby sister is living as ADDIE! With friendships — and school tests — on the line, and a sneaky stranger determined to get her hands on the magic bracelet . . . can Addie and her sisters find a way to switch things BACK before it's too late?

Upside-Down Magic

Night Owl (Upside-Down Magic #8)

by Emily Jenkins, Lauren Myracle
Jan 03, 2023 Paperback, Trade $8.99 CAD

The Upside-Down Magic kids are back in another topsy-turvy adventure in the next installment of this New York Times bestselling series!

It's Big Night in Dunwiddle . . . and that means the whole school has a sleepover like no other. For one night every year, magic students run through the halls, hunting for the objects that will win them a super special prize.

Nory is super excited for the scavenger hunt. Not only because she likes winning, but also because if her team wins, she thinks there's a chance her best friend Elliott won't move away to attend super snobby Sage Academy.

Sebastian is a little less excited once the hunt is on. Yes, he has magical powers that help his team — like being able to see invisible things or anything that makes a sound. The problem is that the really loud sounds are hurting him . . . and nobody seems to care.

The kids in Upside-Down Magic know their five F's (Flares, Flyers, Fuzzies, Flickers, and Fluxers) — but to win this night, a sixth F is the most important . . . Friendship.

Dear readers,

I know what it's like to worry about what may or may not be in a book, especially when it comes to queer and trans stories. I'm here to reassure you.

Jude Winters, the main character of this book, is nonbinary and uses they/them pronouns. While Jude and their friends experience different coming outs, all ends well. They also experience deadnaming and misgendering off the page, so you will never learn Jude's birth name or assigned gender. If these are new words to you, please reference the Queer Glossary at the back.

I hope you find unconditional love and safety in Jude's story.

With love,

Ronnie

Praise for Jude Saves the World

"Jude's story is full of heart, queer celebration, and an intelligent tenderness so needed in today's homes and classrooms."

– Ash Van Otterloo, author of Cattywampus

"Full of fierce warmth and humor, Jude Saves the World is a life-changer. A tender, radiant debut."

– Ashley Herring Blake, author of the Stonewall Honor book Ivy Aberdeen's Letter to the World

"A heartwarming exploration of identity, unconditional friendship, found family, and harnessing the force of love to right the world's wrongs. I couldn't help loving Jude with my whole heart—just like that!"

Perfect for fans of Alex Gino, A. J. Sass, and Kyle Lukoff, this is the joyful and heartwarming story of Jude, a nonbinary kid who knows exactly who they are and decides to create a safe space in their community.

Twelve-year-old Jude struggles with some things: focusing at school, feeling like everything rests on their shoulders, not being able to come out as nonbinary to their old-fashioned grandparents. But Jude doesn't struggle with Dallas, their best friend in the whole world. Their person.

Jude and Dallas's world changes when they learn Stevie, a girl in their class, has been ousted from the popular clique at school. Worried it had something to do with Stevie's rumored crush on another girl, Jude reaches out to see if Stevie is okay. Stevie quickly becomes an important friend to Jude and Dallas, whose unwavering acceptance of her is a stark contrast to the tests and dysfunction she experienced with her former friend group.

As their friendship deepens and the three open up to each other, Stevie's unconditional and open acceptance when Jude comes out to her motivates them to create a queer safe space in their community. Jude has the courage and determination it takes to create the first Diversity Club in their community, but will they be able to find the support they need to make it happen?

Hockey Super Six

Over Time (Hockey Super Six)

By (author) Kevin Sylvester 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Kevin Sylvester 🇨🇦

Jan 03, 2023 | Paperback, Trade | $9.99

Meet six kids a lot like you. Except...

... Benny, Jenny, Karl, Starlight, DJ and Mo got zapped in an evil plot gone wrong — and they became the super-est team the world has ever seen.

Lucky thing, because this time the Six face their toughest challenge yet — all their worst foes have joined together to defeat them once and for all. Thanks to Slapper and Clarence Crosscheck, the Six see their reputation ripped to shreds. And then it gets worse — their powers are stripped away. Their only chance at redemption is a final all-or-nothing hockey game against the GANG. But without all their superpowers, how can they match up? Maybe their true skills were their teamwork and friendship all along?

Better hope so... The fate of the world, and more importantly hockey, hang in the balance.

It's a race against time and the whole universe is at stake in this sixth action-packed, laugh-a-minute book in the Hockey Super Six series.

With short chapters packed with action, loads of illustrations and jokes aplenty, the Hockey Super Six series keeps kids gripped, and wondering how their heroes will win the day.

The Scroll of Chaos

by Elsie Chapman
Mar 07, 2023 Hardcover $25.99 CAD

Join Astrid Xu in this action-packed adventure as she ventures into the world of mythological China in order to save her mother — and the world! Perfect for fans of Rick Riordan and Shang Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings!

When Astrid Xu stumbles upon an ancient scroll with Chinese characters, she just knows it's the key to saving her mom from the "fog"—the depression that keeps her mom bedridden for days at a time. What Astrid doesn't expect, though, is to be transported—along with her younger sister, Marilla—to Zhen, a realm where the Chinese legends of old are real!

In Zhen, Astrid and Marilla meet Erlang Shen, a powerful warrior, and Lan Caihe, one of the Eight Immortals. It seems an ancient evil known as Chaos is wreaking havoc all throughout this mythological world, threatening to shroud all of Zhen in darkness—and Astrid is the only one who can stop it.

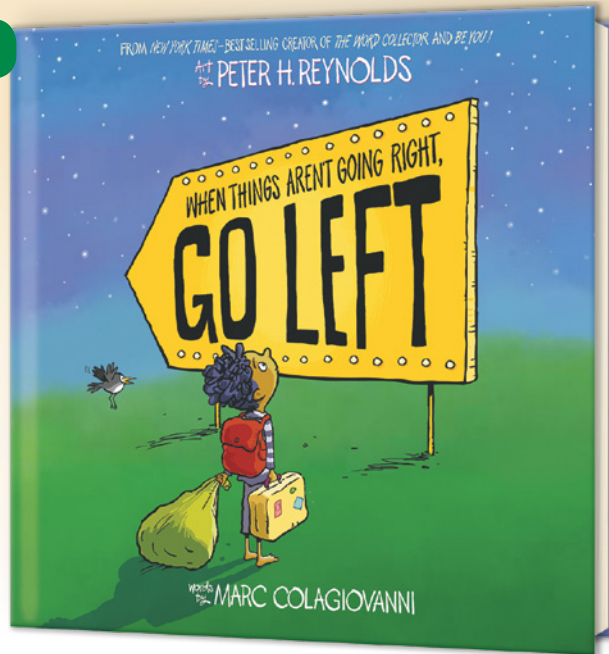

With only her sister (who has been trapped in the body of a cat!) and two great mythological figures to help her, Astrid sets out on a journey to face her destiny. But will she be able to save her mom—and the world!—before Chaos reigns supreme?

Smile So Big

By (author) Sunshine Quem Tenasco 🍁, Illustrated by Chief Lady Bird 🍁
Mar 07, 2023 | Hardcover, Picture book, Dust jacket | $21.99

When Challa comes home in tears after being teased about her smile, her mom gives her a special gift. It's a magic mirror — shiny, beaded and beautiful — passed on from her mom, and from her djo djo before her.

Challa's mom tells her that when anyone looks into the mirror, they will see their true self. There's just one rule: Everyone has to say what they see in the reflection.

At first the mirror seems to work for everyone but her. Challa keeps looking and looking. The more beauty she sees in herself, the happier she feels, and the longer she looks into the mirror, the more beauty she sees, until finally Challa sees so much beauty, she can't contain her smile!

This special story, from award-winning activist Sunshine Quem Tenasco and artist Chief Lady Bird, introduces readers to concepts of self-acceptance, self-empowerment, and recognition of the unique beauty that comes from within.

When Sally Met Harry

By (author) Paulette Bourgeois 🍁, Illustrated by Brooke Kerrigan 🍁
Jan 03, 2023 | Hardcover, Picture book, Paper over boards | $19.99

Goldendoodle meets baby in this fun story about adapting to a new sibling!

There's a new baby joining the household, and Sally the goldendoodle doesn't know what to think!

"Everything will change," warn her friends at the dog park.

Sure enough, once baby Harry arrives, Sally feels neglected. Everybody is focused on the new baby and nobody has time to take her for walks. Sally tries hard to be the most loved again, until one day, Harry cries inconsolably, and only Sally can make him smile.

Maybe being a big sister isn't so bad after all!

This warmhearted story from Paulette Bourgeois, creator of Franklin the Turtle, is perfect for every child (or puppy!) who has a new sibling on the way, and the mommies and daddies who have to explain it to them.

A classic Munsch tale about a kid who loves to climb.

Anna loves to climb, even if she's not always successful. What's more, she's impossible to stop!

Up, up, up she goes, to the very top of the enormous tree in her yard. "Be careful!" says her mother. "Come down!" says her father.

But getting Anna down is not as easy as it looks. Time for mom and dad to climb the tree...

In this fun story, kids will delight in the repetitive, silly wordplay, and the curious, unstoppable Anna, who is always several steps ahead of her parents!

There's just one more sleep before Eid-al-Fitr, and Safa is so excited! She loves drawing henna patterns on her hands, decorating her home and munching on biryani, kebabs and samosas. She is having the best day ever until she opens her present: a shiny pink bicycle that she absolutely doesn't want to share with her cousin, Alissa.

As her mom takes her on an adventure to gift delicious Eid treats to all their neighbours, Safa realizes how wonderful it is to make others happy . . . and wants to make it up to Alissa.

After all, what makes Eid exciting is sharing special moments with the people we love.

Apr 04, 2023 Paperback , Trade $7.99 CAD

Grandpa loves you, little one,your tiny hands, your nose.Grandpa loves your cheeky grin,your wiggly, wiggly toes . . .

Follow a grandfather as he spends the days with his grandchildren: gardening, telling stories, going to swimming lessons, hanging clothes on the line, playing in the rain and camping in the backyard.

With inviting illustrations and affirming text, Grandpa Loves You celebrates the special bond between children and their grandfathers — a perfect gift for Father's Day.

Brady Brady
Brady Brady and the Super Skater

By (author) Mary Shaw 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Chuck Temple 🇨🇦

Jan 03, 2023 | Paperback, Trade, Picture book | $7.99

The Icehogs have a new player — and she's a super skater!

Brady hasn't seen anyone skate faster than Caroline. But when it comes time to putting the puck in the net, she can't quite connect.

Brady soon realizes it's because she can't see properly, but like many kids, Caroline doesn't want to wear her glasses. A little understanding and friendship help Caroline see that they're not so bad after all, and the Icehogs' new super skater saves the day with an amazing play.

Join Brady Brady and his team in another great hockey story that also showcases the real meaning of community, teamwork and friendship.

Contributor Bio

MARY SHAW developed Brady Brady while trying to get her hockey-obsessed five-year-old son to read. The bestselling series, which now includes 17 books, is a true Canadian success story. Mary Shaw lives in Vancouver, British Columbia when she's not at her cottage outside of Ottawa, Ontario. Visit her online at www.bradybrady.com.

CHUCK TEMPLE began his career at the age of 18 when his first comic strip, Bernie on the Beat, went into syndication. He studied at both the University of Guelph and the Ontario College of Art, and cites Bill Watterson, creator of Calvin and Hobbes, as his favourite cartoonist. He also enjoys coaching and playing hockey. He lives in Kitchener, Ontario.

The Littlest Easter Bunny

By (author) Brandi Dougherty, Illustrated by Jamie Pogue

Feb 07, 2023 | Board book, Picture book | $9.99

Is the littlest Easter bunny too little to celebrate Easter? Find out in this adorably hobby story in the bestselling Littlest series -- now a board book!

From the New York Times bestselling author who brought us The Littlest Elf and The Littlest Valentine comes a sweet new Easter story filled with colourful springtime fun and one adorable little bunny friend!

Penny is the littlest bunny in Easter Town. She may be little, but Penny knows this is the year she'll be able to find the perfect job to help out THE Easter Bunny on Easter morning! But even though she's excited, Penny just isn't able to make marshmallow treats, or weave baskets, or paint giant eggs. Will Penny be able to find a way to participate in the Easter festivities, or is the littlest Easter bunny still too little?

Contributor Bio

Brandi Dougherty is the author of the New York Times bestselling picture book The Littlest Pilgrim as well as its many sequels, and many other books for children, including The Valentine's Day Disaster and The Friendship Experiment. She lives in Los Angeles, California, with her family.

Jamie Pogue is an illustrator and fine artist living outside of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He's been drawing and painting for as long as he can remember, going back to the days when he drew his favorite cartoon characters on spare sheets of copy paper. Today, he's happy to say that he gets to draw and paint for a living! Find out more about Jamie at jamielopogueart.com.
