Le chat raplapla

Flat Cat

Flat Cat was born flat. He wasn't squashed by an out-of-control ice cream truck, or smushed in a waffle iron. He was just flat. This slick, sly cat could stray and roam anywhere he pleased, keen and unseen. And wouldn't you know it, Flat Cat liked it just like that.

That is until one day, when Flat Cat accidentally fell splish splosh right in the wash. And when he emerged from the dryer, Flat Cat wasn't flat at all. He was adorably puffy and downright fluffy! And Flat Cat wasn't sure how he felt about that.

From acclaimed author Tara Lazar and brought to life by bestselling illustrator Pete Oswald, this is a hilariously quirky and irreverent story that is sure to appeal to little cat lovers!

TARA LAZAR finds it fabulous to be foolish about felines. She opened the door to a cat mewling, offered the stray a can of tuna, and the cat never left. She is the author of 7 Ate 9, The Monstore, Bloop, and more. You can find them all — Tara, her husband, two daughters, and a black cat—somewhere in New Jersey.

PETE OSWALD is a fine-arts painter, an animator, an author, and an illustrator. He illustrated the New York Times bestselling books La mauvaise graine, L'œuf modèle, and Le pois chic by Jory John. He has also worked as a character designer and concept artist on the movies Madagascar: Escape 2 Africa, Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs, and the Oscar-nominated ParaNorman. Pete lives in Los Angeles, California, with his wife and their three sons.

★ PRAISE

" Flat or fluffy, is there a better way to be? Lazar's wryly humorous tale won't leave young audiences flat, while Oswald's purple-tinged cartoon depictions of this Flat Stanley-style feline add their share of giggles (as usual). A hilarious reminder that versatility will have you feline fine. "

~ Kirkus

" The 'slick, sly' feline protagonist of this picture book is two-dimensional and loving it: his 'smooth moves' involve roaming any place he pleases and snoozing 'in any nook and cranny,' including, as purple-tinted, thick-lined digital art by Oswald shows, draped over a towel bar... Featuring groovy text, it's a Flat Stanley-flavoured take on rolling with the punches and fluidly embracing newfound facets and friends. "

L'un pour l'autre

Made For Me

*Of all the children that ever could be,
You are the one made just for me.*

From a child's first uttered "Dada" to their first unsteady steps, nothing can adequately convey the joy and awe of watching the growth of a new child. This book is perfect for new dads and baby shower and Father's Day gift-giving. Written by a dad for dads, it's guaranteed to touch the hearts of all. Filled with adorable illustrations and the refrain, "You are the one made just for me," L'un pour l'autre is a winning presentation of tender moments that tie a father and his new child together — forever.

ZACK BUSH's passion is books. A devoted reader and writer, Zack's lifetime desire to become an author has found a refreshed source of inspiration as the father of two-year-old son Ace and baby daughter Ava.

GREGORIO DE LAURETIS studied at the Academy of Art in Florence and graduated in Teramo. Since then, he has studied graphic design and web design at Nemo NT Academy of Digital Arts where he was awarded a scholarship from the famous character designer Stephen Silver. Gregorio works digitally but begins with drawing with ink on paper. He then scans the work on his computer where he exalts the piece with his colours and finishing touches. He currently works as freelance illustrator based in Florence, where he lives.

★ PRAISE

" This tremendously sweet book will fill every empty space it finds. Love and a sense of belonging flow on every rhythmic word like a cool brook satisfies on a warm summer day. Illustrations by De Lauretis bring this loving father's heart into full vivid view. It's simply delightful. "

~ Darleen Wohlfeil, Midwest Book Review

" Bush's easy-reading verse captures the wonder of becoming a parent and the joy to be found in the quiet moments of child care. "

Quelle équipe grandiose!

The Most Magnificent Team

A girl and her dog are ready to make something. She gathers her supplies, and they head to her favourite workspace — only to discover that her neighbour, along with her cat, got there first! Hmm, well, maybe they could make something together? Magnificent idea! So the girl starts cutting, hammering, and gluing, while her neighbor considers, measures, and calculates. Her neighbour believes in always measuring twice and cutting once, but the girl thinks that takes way too long. Tensions start to rise as it becomes clear they have very different styles of working. And even different ideas about exactly what they're making! Can they ever work things out as a team?

Blending humour with empathy to strike just the right note, Ashley Spires perfectly captures the emotional ups and downs of working with others in this celebration of collaboration in the creative process. As the girl perseveres through technical and emotional challenges, she learns that mistakes don't mean failure and setbacks are just part of the route to success.

This amusing and inspiring picture book is part of the franchise that includes books, a TV series, and an award-winning short film. The series is a favourite among educators because of its growth mindset focus, and this title highlights another important theme in the classroom: teamwork.

ASHLEY SPIRES earned her BFA at the Emily Carr Institute of Art and went on to earn a graduate diploma in illustration from Sheridan College. She is the author and illustrator of La fée scientifique, La fée scientifique : Solide, liquide, gazeux, Quel génie!, and Quelle idée magnifique!, among other books. Ashley lives in British Columbia.

The Invisible String

A beloved story now available in hardcover!

Parents, educators, therapists, and social workers alike have declared Le fil invisible the perfect tool for coping with all kinds of separation anxiety, loss, and grief. It's also been joyfully embraced as a year-round celebration of love — gifted at births, graduations, weddings, Valentine's Day, and beyond.

Does everybody have an Invisible String? How far does it reach? Does it ever go away?

In this relatable and reassuring contemporary classic, a mother tells her two children that they're all connected by an invisible string. "That's impossible!" the children insist, but still they want to know more: "What kind of string?" The answer is the simple truth that binds us all: an Invisible String made of love. Even though you can't see it with your eyes, you can feel it deep in your heart, and know that you are always connected to the ones you love.

This heartwarming picture book for all ages explores questions about the intangible yet unbreakable connections between us and opens up deeper conversations about love.

PATRICE KARST is the author of Le fil invisible and Le lien invisible. Born in London, England, she now lives in Ventura, California, and is the mother of one grown son.

Nibi a soif, très soif (version bilingue)

Nibi's Water Song (Dual Language)

Nibi is the Anishinaabemowin word for water. In Nibi a soif, très soif an Indigenous girl searches for clean water to drink. Though she is faced with repeated obstacles, Nibi's joyful and determined energy becomes a catalyst for change and action as her community, and then in widening circles the country and government, rally around her to make clean drinking water available for all. In a story perfectly levelled for young readers, there is a strong underlying message that even when a problem seems too large to face, every bit that everyone does helps. And inaction in the face of a wrong is not an option.

Sunshine Quem Tenasco, an Anishinabeg activist for clean water, has an amazing optimistic spirit that shines through her writing. The hopeful tone and lyrical read-aloud quality of this gentle allegorical tale open the door to conversations and actions aimed at young children, whether they are on a reserve that does not have clean water or they are living with access to clean water. Chief Lady Bird's stunning, original artwork carries through the themes of strength, hope, and resilience in an incredible collaboration of talent.

SUNSHINE QUEM TENASCO is Anishinabe, from Kitigàn Zìbì Anishinàbe, Quebec. She is a clean water activist, mother of four, and an entrepreneur, founder of Her Braids (herbraids.com) and Pow Wow Pitch. She is the author of Nibi a soif, très soif and Un si beau sourire.

CHIEF LADY BIRD is a Chippewa and Potawatomi artist from Rama First Nation and Moose Deer Point First Nation. The first artist to create an emoji for Twitter for Indigenous Peoples Day/Indigenous History Month, she uses digital illustration, mixed-media work, street art/murals, and community-based workshops, to centre contemporary truths and envision Indigenous Futurisms. She is the illustrator of Nibi a soif, très soif and Un si beau sourire.

Sinistre secret

The Deep Dark

From Molly Knox Ostertag, writer-illustrator of the New York Times and ABA Indie bestselling trilogy starting with Le garçon sorcière, and La fille venue de la mer, comes a darkly beautiful story of identity, family, love, loss, and magic.

Everyone has secrets. Mags's has teeth.

Magdalena Herrera is about to graduate high school, but she already feels like an adult with serious responsibilities: caring for her ailing grandmother; working a part-time job; clandestine make-outs with a girl who has a boyfriend. And then there's her secret, which pulls her into the basement each night, drains her of energy, and leaves her bleeding. A secret that could hurt and even kill if it ever got out — like it did once before.

So Mags keeps her head down, isolated in her small desert community. That is, until her childhood friend Nessa comes back to town, bringing vivid memories of the past, an intoxicating glimpse of the future, and a secret of her own. Mags won't get attached, of course. She's always been strong enough to survive without anyone's help.

But when the darkness starts to close in on them both, Mags will have to drag her secret into the daylight, and choose between risking everything... or having nothing left to lose.

MOLLY KNOX OSTERTAG is the acclaimed ABA Indie and New York Times bestselling graphic novel author-illustrator of La fille venue de la mer and the Witch Boy trilogy: Le garçon sorcière, La sorcière secrète, and La sorcière du solstice, as well as a writer for animation. A graduate of the School of Visual Arts, Molly was featured in the Forbes 30 Under 30: Media list in 2020. She's married to fellow writer and artist ND Stevenson, and they live in Los Angeles with two cats and a very cuddly dog.

Quand tu sauras nager...

When You Can Swim

A reverent celebration of learning to swim among a diverse cast of children and families who each experience the mysterious joys of water in nature.

In this exploration of what it truly means to swim, expansive vignettes introduce sandpipers, tannin-soaked lakes, and the feeling of a small waterfall on sun-soaked shoulders. But what about those who are afraid of the water's mysterious ways and resist learning to swim? Painting a compelling picture of the many joys and surprises that the water holds, artist and author Jack Wong has delivered an empowering, poetic journey that invites children to discover their confidence within to receive the warmth and wonder of the natural world.

JACK WONG has created a masterpiece drawn from his lived experience of growing up with a grandmother who spent her childhood in the rivers of Borneo and a mother — growing up in late 1950s China — who was forbidden to learn to swim. Born in Hong Kong and raised in Vancouver, Jack holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Nova Scotia College of Art and Design in Halifax, Canada, where he now lives with his wife and two cats.

★ PRAISE

" In visually inventive, lovingly finished pastel-and-watercolour spreads and sinuous lines of prose-poetry, debut author-illustrator Wong showcases myriad children encountering the joys of swimming. "

" With poetic text and gorgeous, inclusive illustrations, Wong invites readers to learn how to swim — to conquer fear of the water, and also to reclaim aquatic spaces for Brown, Black, and differently abled bodies... This isn't just a book about swimming but also 'about our ideas of the world'; it's a manifesto that 'this belongs to you, too'. "

Moon Mouse

Come on an adventure to the moon and back with Moon Mouse as he sets off on an epic journey through space, discovering friendship and connection along the way.

Moon Mouse lives far out in space, with only his garden and his ideas for company. Mouse loves his moon home, but sometimes, when he spies a birthday party on Earth through his telescope, he finds himself wishing he could join in with the fun.

Then one day, a birthday balloon floats away from a birthday boy and up, up, up — all the way to Moon Mouse’s garden! Will Mouse find the courage to leave the comfort and security of his home to discover what it means to make a friend?

So when a magnificent ship adorned with antlers arrives at the dock looking for a crew, Marco volunteers hoping to find foxes who are as inquisitive as he is and answers to his questions. ### La couverture : Une histoire d'amitié

The Friendship Blanket

Sometimes all you need is a keepsake to make any place feel like home.

Aurelia has left her home, and her beloved grandmother — Abuelita — to move to Canada with her mother. At first she's excited about her new neighbourhood with the big trees. She loves her room, which Mami says she can paint any colour she wants. And she's looking forward to starting school and making new friends.

But school isn't what she expected. Some of her classmates tease her for being different, and she's left out of schoolyard games. She ends up feeling quite alone. With the help of a blanket Abuelita has given her, and the love it signifies, Aurelia returns to school with a new perspective and makes a true connection.

Inspired by the author's own experiences, this story is a touching and age-appropriate depiction of what it's like to experience racism and exclusion, and what it means to find friendship.

Le jardin des bas perdus

Garden of Lost Socks

Two-time Scotiabank Giller Prize winner Esi Edugyan debuts her picture book, lovingly illustrated by Amélie Dubois — a whimsical story about friendship, curiosity, and the magic of a vibrant community.

Akosua was always told she was too nosy.

Her parents loved her very much, but she always seemed to find trouble.

"Trouble isn't what I find!" said Akosua. "I'm an Exquirolologist. What I find is lost things."

This big-hearted picture book debut from one of Canada's brightest literary stars follows Akosua as she finds both a new friend and a remarkable world hidden right in her very own community. Acclaimed artist Amélie Dubois adds a layer of magic to Akosua's charming adventure with her delicate, compelling illustrations.

Each turn of the page pulls readers deeper into Akosua's journey, daring them to become Exquirolologists too, and encouraging them to seek out magic in the mundane!

ESI EDUGYAN is the author of Half-Blood Blues, Dreaming of Elsewhere, and Washington Black, which was shortlisted for the Rogers Writers' Trust Fiction Prize and the Man Booker Prize and won the 2018 Scotiabank Giller Prize. She lives in Victoria, British Columbia.

La fête fourmi-dable!

Ant Party

Andy is planning a small party for his birthday. But as word spreads around the anthill, the guest list grows and grows! Exuberant fun on every colourful page.

It's another busy day at the anthill. Farmer ants collect food, worker ants build tunnels, and soldier ants guard the queen. But for Andy, it's a very special day: his birthday! He invites his neighbours for a fun party with dancing and dips. But unbeknownst to Andy, his neighbours invite a few of their friends, and then those friends invite a few of their friends... Soon the event is shaping up to be a full-blown mega ant party! Andy is shocked by the turnout, but soon gets into the swing of things. Until, that is, an unwelcome guest crashes the party — and Andy's house! — and the ants must work together to save the day (and the dips). Jovial text and lively, detailed illustrations make this story a comedic delight.

Those Are Not My Underpants

Someone lost their underpants! There, dangling from that tree branch! Are they YOURS? New York Times bestselling author-illustrator of Can I Be Your Dog?, Troy Cummings, brings to life Melissa Martin's gentle but hilarious read-aloud, filled with silliness and gleeful anticipation of the end.

One morning, Bear Cub wakes up and finds underwear hanging on a tree limb. Who could they belong to? Ever inquisitive, he sets out on a quest through the forest to find the tighty whities' rightful owner. Could the underpants belong to Squirrel? Moose? Snake, maybe? Salmon?! Each animal denies that the bloomers belong to them, but readers will surely be giggling every step on the way...especially when they find out who the underpants actually belong to.

MELISSA MARTIN, PhD, is an author, columnist, educator, and clinical child therapist with extensive experience as a play and behavioural therapist. He lives in Greencastle, Indiana with his messy kids and neat cats.

★ PRAISE

"Martin builds in pleasing narrative rhythm through the repetition of Bear Cub's friendly interrogation that leads up to each undergarment's reveal, while Cummings's bold graphic pictures, reminiscent of vintage national park posters, create a colourful and benevolent world for Bear Cub and readers to explore together."

Au cœur du marché goblin

Into the Goblin Market

A picture book ode to Christina Rossetti's classic poem and a clever homage to familiar fairy tale villains, this story about two sisters will enthrall readers with its beautifully detailed art and enchanting writing.

Millie loves her quiet life on the farm, but her sister Mina longs for adventure.

When the Goblin Market comes to town, Millie knows it's a bad idea. They've been told stories their whole lives about the dangers of the Goblin Market. But Mina just can't resist...

When Mina doesn't come back, it's Millie's turn to brave the market to bring her home. She will use all her smarts and all her courage to try to outwit the goblins and save her sister...but will it be enough?

This gorgeous and intriguing tribute to both "Goblin Market" by Christina Rossetti and classic fairy-tale villains is also a story about the bond between sisters and a celebration of courage, intelligence, and resilience.

VIKKI VANSICKLE is a writer and dramatist who holds an MA in Children's Literature from the University of British Columbia. She has extensive experience working with children at theatre day camps and as a bookseller at an independent children's bookstore. Vikki lives in Toronto, Ontario.

★ PRAISE

" [A] bravura picture book... With its righteous turning of tables courtesy of Millie's quick thinking, Into the Goblin Market, which was inspired by the like-themed Christina Rossetti poem, earns a spot in the contemporary fairy-tale pantheon. ... Eckwall's black-and-white art, which has the look of elaborate woodcuts, hosts a cauldron's worth of classic fairy-tale allusions. Readers can spot a piper, a witch with a (presumably) poisoned apple, and, in one of the book's occasional blasts of colour, rescue-mode Millie in a red hood, conjuring another red-cloaked hero of the fairy-tale world. "

~ Shelf Awareness, starred review

" A beautiful blend of classic aesthetics and modern sensibilities with a marvelous message of courage and love.... [A] bewitching book. "

~ Booklist

" This is a deliciously spooky story inspired by Christina Rossetti's poem, 'The Goblin Market,' and classic fairy tales. It is perfectly matched with black and red block print-type illustrations. This will be a delight to read with children!"

Mr. S

It was the first day of school.

But even the kindergarteners of room 2B could tell something was seriously wrong... Where was the teacher? Who left this sandwich on the desk?

The only clue, written on the chalkboard, were three simple letters: Mr. S.

Prepare for plenty of giggles as a kindergarten class arrives for their first day of school but can't find their teacher — only a delicious-looking sandwich and the words "Mr. S" scribbled on the chalkboard. Chaos ensues as the kids argue whether the sandwich could be their teacher. A comical first-day-of-school book of mayhem and chaos by Monica Arnaldo.

~ School Library Journal, starred review

Petit vampire a peur de dormir

Things That Go Bump in the Day

The sun is out and it's time for vampire Vlad to go to bed, but it's easier said than done with all the creepy, creaky daytime noises that keep him (and his mother) from getting a good day's rest.

Vampire Vlad is all tucked in, ready for bed. But his imagination runs wild when he hears all the daytime noises happening outside. A clickety-clack, a skreek, and a clang? Who knows what that could be!

With each new sound, Vlad races to his patient and reassuring, but tired mama's room until he learns how to calm himself down and finally get a good day's rest. Melinda Beatty's clever text and award-winning illustrator Charlene Chua's imaginative illustrations make the perfect bedtime read (during the day or night) for anyone a little nervous to go to bed.

MELINDA BEATTY is the author of the Heartseeker series and the picture book Tell the Truth, Pangolin, illustrated by Paola Escobar. Her passion for books spills over into her second career as an indie bookseller. After living in boats, basements, and attics, she and her husband now reside in western Maryland with their two kids.

CHARLENE CHUA has illustrated more than a dozen books, including Ne lâche pas, Olivier!, Amy Wu and The Perfect Bao, The Pencil, and Hug?, and her work has been nominated for the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Award, the Forest of Reading Awards, the Shining Willow Award, and the First Nation Communities READ Award. Charlene lives in Hamilton, Ontario.

★ PRAISE

" The witty digital illustrations will have kids chuckling... This twist on the bedtime tale will induce giggles — and, maybe, some reflection about kids' own bedtime-stalling tactics... Children will stay wide awake, day or night, to finish this funny sleepy-time story. "

~ Kirkus

" [A] reassuring take on bedtime anxieties. Chua's zingy digital art does double duty... The tandem print and visual through lines allow for an engaging blend of outlandish and ordinary. Mama's soothing, consistent presence — even while sporting Medusa-like snake hair curlers — permeates all. "

Biographie en images : Voici Frederick Banting

Scholastic Canada Biography: Meet Frederick Banting

The Biographie en images series is an award-winning collection of titles focused on fascinating people who have shaped Canada's past and present. Written by acclaimed nonfiction author Elizabeth MacLeod, each book features comics-inspired illustrations by Mike Deas, which appeal to today's readers and help bring the story to life.

Meet Frederick Banting – doctor, scientist and Nobel Prize-winner!

Dr. Frederick Banting's remarkable discovery of insulin has changed and saved the lives of millions around the world...but that's only part of his story!

When Frederick Banting was young, his friend Jennie became sick. She had diabetes and soon passed away. Fred grew up determined to do something about this terrible disease. He became a surgeon, helping soldiers in World War I. After the war, he practiced family medicine and taught at a nearby university. But Fred still wanted to help people with diabetes.

One night he was struck by a big idea — a whole new way to treat the disease. Fred convinced a professor at the University of Toronto to give him a lab and an assistant: Charles Best. They worked long hours and finally developed insulin. To this day, insulin is still the only treatment for diabetes. It has saved the lives of millions of people around the world.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many Canadian nonfiction titles, including the Canada Close Up series titles Canada's Trees and Canadian Money in addition to the award-winning Biographie en images series and Canada Year-By-Year. MIKE DEAS is the illustrator of the Sueño Bay Adventures series, the Graphic Guide Adventure series and the Tank and Fizz books, as well as the titles in the Biographie en images series.
