Students can search by subject, genre or level!

The screenshot shows the website's search interface. On the left, there are three filter sections: 'NIVEAUX' (Levels) with a grid of letters A-Z; 'TYPE DE TEXTE' (Text Type) with checkboxes for 'Informatif' and 'Narratif'; and 'CATÉGORIES' (Categories) with a list of subjects like 'Aventure et action', 'Histoires populaires', 'Les animaux', etc. An orange callout bubble with arrows points from the text 'Students can search by subject, genre or level!' to these filter sections. The main area displays a grid of eBook covers, each with an 'OUVRIIR' button and an 'EN SAVOIR PLUS' button. The covers include titles like 'À la bibliothèque', 'À la maison, Charbon!', 'À la pêche', 'À la piscine', 'À qui est-ce que je ressemble?', 'À table, les mouettes', 'Adam, gardien de but', 'Ali et sa bande', 'Au Canada', 'Au verger', 'Autobus, voitures et camions', and 'Bonne nuit gros ours'.
